PREMIER HOPES FOR ENDING BY TONIGHT OF MOTORS STRIKE

Makes Confidential Statement Following Conference With Union and Labor Department Officials—Company Announces Opening of One Department of Its Big Plant at Oshawa

TORONTO, April 9 (P).—Premier Mitchell Hepburn tonight said he was "hopeful" of a settlement of the General Motors strike at Oshawa by tomorrow night.

The Premier made his statement following a two-hour conference between himself, C. H. Nillard, international representative of the United Automobile Workers of America, representatives of the local union, and Louis Fine, industrial standards officer of the Ontario Labor Department.

Mr. Hepburn announced General Motors executives will be at his office tomorrow. The union representatives will be received again at 1 p.m. and the fruit of these two conferences, Mr. Hepburn hopes, will be a settlement to send 3,700 workers back to their jobs.

THREAT FROM U.S.

OSHAWA, Ont., April 9 (P).—Threat of a sympathy strike in General Motors plants in the United States faced determined General Motors of Canada officials here tonight as they prepared for a preliminary "showdown" involving the opening of one department in the strike-stilled Oshawa plant.

"We're opening the parts office tomorrow," said a company official. At once the tense struggle over recognition of United Automobile Workers of America, an arm of the John L. Lewis labor organization, was shifted to that single point. A crisis tomorrow appeared unavoidable.

WILL GET PROTECTION

With nearly 200 Royal Canadian Mounted and Provincial Police at his call, Premier Mitchell Hepburn, of Ontario, declared in Toronto: "If the company wants to ship parts they will get all the protection from this Government that they require."

Hugh Thompson, C.I.O. organizer, who called the walkout of 3,700 workers yesterday, said: "Not a car will be built in any General Motors plant in the United States if an attempt is made to break this strike."

Oshawa was quiet and carefree on the second day of the strike. There was no excitement, no massing of men, no demonstrating. Pickets patrolled the big motor car plant in groups of thirty or less. Only the office staff and executives were at work.

BENNETT SEES DISCRIMINATION

Conservative Leader Says
Alberta Unfairly Treated
In Federal Assistance

OTTAWA, April 9 (P).—A protest against the treatment of Alberta in the recommendations of the Bank of Canada was made in the House of Commons tonight by Conservative Leader R. B. Bennett, who represents the riding of West Calgary. He claimed it was decided discrimination.

The protest was only the first round of the incident, which will be renewed tomorrow when John Blackmore, leader of the Social Credit party will speak. Finance Minister C. A. Dunning also promised to take part in the discussion.

AID FOR OTHERS

Mr. Bennett referred to the vote of $750,000 for Manitoba and $1,500,000 for Saskatchewan in the supplementary estimates. They were based on recommendations of the Bank of Canada which investigated the finances of the three Prairie Provinces. A third report recommended no assistance for Alberta, claiming the province, through cutting bond interest in half, was able to maintain all services until the Royal Commission on Taxation made a report to the Government.

TREATED DIFFERENTLY

There was obviously a discrimination against Alberta, Mr. Bennett said. That province was being treated entirely differently from Manitoba and Saskatchewan. Alberta defaulted on bond interest because the Dominion turned down its application for assistance, Mr. Bennett claimed. Saskatchewan, on the other hand, was able to borrow $3,000,000 from the Bank of Canada which enabled it to pay full interest rates, he said.

MADRID, April 10 (CP-Havas).—Government capture of Carabanchel Bajo, vital village two miles southwest of Madrid, was reported early today.

Insurgents immediately began evacuating Carabanchel Alto, sister village just south of Carabanchel Bajo, it was stated.

The latter town fell, a communiqué claimed, after Government troops drove insurgents from their stronghold in the military hospital buildings on the outskirts of Madrid and thus rendered Carabanchel untenable by the enemy.

THE LAST OBSTACLE

Meanwhile, a little nest of insurgent machine gunners was all that stood against capture of Mount Garabitas' summit by Government troops.

Denies Rumor Price of Gold To Be Lowered

WASHINGTON, April 9 (P).—President Roosevelt, scotching a rumor which spread through world financial centres this week, said today he knew of no plan to lower the price of gold. It had been rumored that the United States contemplated cutting its $35-ounce price, which largely sets the world price.

Mr. Roosevelt told his press conference, however, that neither he nor the Treasury knew of any plan to whittle the world price.

The gold reports circulated widely both in the United States and abroad.

Two Local Businesses May Be Adversely Affected—Deputy Minister Requested

ATTENTION was drawn to the fact that the new harbor dues, still remaining in effect, might seriously injure the frozen fish industry, and Yarrow's Shipbuilding Yard, in a letter sent J. H. Hamilton, secretary of the Vancouver Merchants' Exchange, by George I. Warren, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, following a meeting of the organization yesterday.

Need for a deputy minister of marine of the Pacific Coast is also stressed in the communication, which thanks Mr. Hamilton for the manner in which he outlined the situation existing here, in correspondence to the Minister of Transport.

Parliament Works Fast in Effort To Prorogue Sometime Today

OTTAWA, April 10 (P).—The House of Commons forgot the clock and adjourned at 12:22 this morning after cleaning estimates from the order paper in a drive toward prorogation expected late today or tonight.

The House spent most of the night passing millions of dollars in estimates, almost as fast as Chairman Sanders, of the supply committee, could call them. With the estimates out of the way the House will have only the remaining tariff items to deal with, including the upward revision of furniture schedules which are strongly opposed by low tariff Liberal members. There may also be some amendments to measures now in the Senate for approval.

LOS ANGELES, April 9 (P).—Several hours after Dolores Snyder, four, was abducted and released unharmed today, police whisked Gustave Mohr, forty-five, from an enraged crowd and charged him with suspicion of kidnapping the child.

Mohr, a welder, was identified by Dolores as the man who seized her from in front of her home on the south side of Los Angeles, drove her about, bought her some candy, then drove away without harming her.

"That's him—don't let him get me again," the child cried when Mohr, married and the father of two children, was brought by police into the store operated by Dolores' parents.

As he was being taken out of the store, a crowd of persons who gathered outside cried, "Lynch him!" take him away from the police and kill him!"

NOVA SCOTIA CABINET MEMBER RESIGNS POST

HALIFAX, April 9 (P).—Head of provincial lumber regulations, Hon. C. A. Anderson, of Sherbrooke, N.S., resigned today as minister without portfolio in the Liberal Government of Premier Angus L. Macdonald.

Announcing his decision to members of the Legislature, Mr. Anderson said he had decided to resign pending findings of arbitrators who will inquire into the statements of Chief Forester G. W. I. Creighton, who made the charges.

SEATTLE, April 9 (P).—Adrift for two days off the Northern Washington Coast, the halibut boat Alo, of Seattle, was found tonight by the coast guard boat 271 near Trial Island and towed to Port Angeles. The Canadian vessel Princess Charlotte sighted the Alo, whose engines had broken down, and wireless the coast guard.

Discovery Of Comet Announced

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 9 (P).—The discovery of a comet by W. F. Gale, of Sydney, Australia, was announced by the Harvard College Observatory today.

A brief radiogram said the comet then was of the tenth magnitude, which is too faint for observation by the unaided human eye.

The position, as of 5 a.m. April 6, universal time, was right ascension, 16 hours 13 minutes 30 seconds; declination minus 20 degrees, 27 minutes. Its motion was eastward.

TIGHTENING UP AGAINST SPIES

Commissariat of Railways
Taking Extra Precautions
To Prevent Treachery

MOSCOW, April 9 (P).—Russian Commissariat of Railways, fearing information gained by spies in peace-time may be used in war, tightened its rail communications today in two moves designed to wipe out espionage and sabotage.

The newspaper Gudok disclosed the rail administration proposes to weed out all employees considered not wholly trustworthy, and that the Commissariat of Posts and Telegraphs will decrease the sending of important information over its lines.

A close check will be made on political views of all telegraphers handling necessary messages.

The newspaper charged the German intelligence service with trying to recruit train agents as spies in important garrison centres to report on troop movements during peacetime and be able to wreck communications in war. "The Japanese also are busy sending spies," the paper said.

COMES TO LIFE IN SHORT ORDER

VANCOUVER, April 9 (P).—Presumed dead two weeks ago by Chief Justice Morrison on application of his wife, Ralph Pearce, fifty-eight-year-old war veteran, took action to bring himself "back to life" today.

Pearce walked into the Provincial Courthouse here yesterday. Today he and his wife, Violet Louise Pearce, of Chilliwack, B.C., made joint application to set aside the order presuming his death.

Mrs. Pearce had told Mr. Justice Morrison her husband had not been reported since his disappearance fifteen years ago.

City Council Makes First Onslaught on Estimates for Year

Second Meeting to Be Held Monday—School Board Budget May Prove Satisfactory—Large Grant Is Sought for Anniversary Celebration

SITTING as an estimates committee, the City Council last evening staged a preliminary attack on the 1937 budget of $2,417,618.93 with Mayor Andrew McGavin presiding. Exclusive of salaries, forty-nine votes were discussed by Aldermen. Another session will be held at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, and it is expected that the meeting will last well into the evening.

It was explained by D. A. MacDonald, city controller and treasurer, that School Board estimates, by deducting a sinking fund payment of $18,940.75, would total $395,788. The sum is well within the $400,000 the council asked the board not to exceed, but is conditional upon the Jules E. Fortin debt adjustment plan being adopted, with suspension of sinking fund payments for three years. Extraordinary board estimates will be examined by the committee.

Mayor McGavin informed the committee police estimates had been cut from $109,916.36 to $109,972.50, a saving of $1,543.90. Upon relating that a further saving was anticipated through a survey of the heating system, he was asked to take estimates back to the Police Commission for revision.

Serious Charges of Laxity on Part of Two Provincial Departments Made by Financial News—B.C. Chamber of Mines and Stock Exchange Also Seek Thorough Investigation

Official Comment on Serious Criticisms Only Stirrs Public

By B. A. McKEIVIE

DEMAND for a public investigation of the most searching character into all the affairs of the Hedley Amalgamated Gold Mines, Ltd., came from all sides yesterday, following publication of the interim report of G. L. Fraser, special commissioner, charged with probing the collapse of the mine stocks on the Vancouver Stock Exchange. Seldom has public indignation been so aroused. Definite charges that the Government was at fault in permitting such conditions to arise as those revealed in the Fraser report, were made by The Financial News, of Vancouver, a leading authority on mining and financial affairs in British Columbia.

B.C. PULP IS INCREASING

Manufacture of Alpha Cellulose for Export as Rayon Base Commencing

British Columbia's pulp and paper industry will enter a new phase next week, when production of a high-grade form of bleached pulp as the base for rayon manufacture will commence under the direction of the B.C. Pulp & Paper Company, Ltd.

The development follows recent extensive additions and improvements of plant at Port Alice and Woodville, and will include the making of alpha cellulose for export, which is understood to have been advised. Alpha cellulose is the base for rayon manufacture, and finds a ready market abroad.

FOR ORIENT

Forestry officials are watching with considerable interest the swing from unbleached to bleached pulp production in British Columbia, and will follow the new departure with attention. A trial shipment of fifty tons of a high-grade bleached pulp was sent to the Orient last year, and this is understood to be followed up by steady production this year.

"Any form of production that will use western hemlock is of importance to British Columbia, and there seems a wonderful opening for increase in the production of bleached pulp," E. C. Manning, chief forester, commented yesterday. Late developments are being examined by the forest branch with interest.

INDUSTRY GROWING

Production of both pulp and paper has been steadily on the increase in the province over the last few years.

NO LONGER OF ROYAL FAMILY

Prince Nicholas of Rumania Made Commoner by Crown Council

BUCHAREST, Rumania, April 9 (P).—Prince Nicholas of Rumania, King Carol's brother, was "read out" of the Royal Family tonight by the Crown Council.

The thirty-four-year-old prince became, in effect, a commoner—largely, it was generally believed, because of complications arising from his marriage to a commoner, Mme. Jana Lucia Delyet, in 1931.

Their marriage was annulled, principally because of King Carol's opposition, but even afterward Nicholas was understood to have interceded for her in an effort to have her elevated to the status of a princess. He has a daughter by the morganatic marriage.

NO LONGER ROYAL

The Crown Council's decision, which came at the end of a three-hour session, was announced in a communiqué, saying "His Royal Highness (Prince Nicholas) is no longer a member of the Royal Family."

The council deprived Nicholas of his royal prerogatives, stripped him of his privileges as a prince and took away his military and civil titles, including inspector-general of the army, navy and air force.

Nicholas visited many parts of Canada in 1926 with his mother, Queen Marie.

SENATE ACCEPTS COMPROMISE OFFER ON C.N.R. FINANCIAL BILL—REMOVES STUMBLING BLOCK

OTTAWA, April 9 (P).—One stumbling block in the way of imminent prorogation was removed today when the Senate accepted a compromise offered by Transport Minister C. D. Howe in the Canadian National Railways recapitalization bill.

The differences between the two Houses were bridged by an amendment that the C.N.R. balance sheet shall carry the following footnote: "The proprietor's equity is disclosed in the net debt of Canada; and in the historical record of Government assistance to railways as shown in the public accounts of Canada."

Six Plays Chosen For Presentation In Festival Final

Splendid Work of May Fletcher, of Vancouver, in Famous Barrie Play Draws Warm Praise From Adjudicator Keinert Wolff

SIX plays "that may be called upon" for presentation at tonight's drama festival finals were named at the Shrine Auditorium last evening by Keinert Wolff, adjudicator. These are "The Purple Cow," a comedy, presented by The Russian Ballet School; "The Rattler," a drama, given by the Curtain Club, of Victoria; the comedy, "Marriage Proposal," by the Attic Players; "Crucifix Lane," a tragedy, by the Punch and Judy Theatre; the drama, "There Is No Return," presented by the Obypa Players, and "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals," by the Masquers, of Vancouver. Other presentations from this afternoon's matinee may also be chosen.

Last evening, four plays, delineations of Irish, Scotch, French and Russian life, were enjoyed by an interested audience.

THE MYSTERY PLAYERS

"The Widdy's Mite," written by Dan Toheron, and directed by Frederick H. Fullerton, a charming bit of Irish whimsy, had in its cast James Ferguson, Heather Croy, Gordon Keating and Gladys Blunt, of the Mystery Players. It was criticized by the adjudicator on the grounds that the dialect was not true to life, and that some of the

FINDS DEATH ACCIDENTAL

Jury Considers Evidence for More Than Hour at W. G. Plowright Inquest

After considering the evidence for more than an hour, the coroner's jury which yesterday afternoon investigated the circumstances of the death of William George Plowright on Wednesday night returned a verdict of accidental death. Edwin C. Loughlan, driver of the car which the evidence showed had struck Mr. Plowright at the corner of Craigflower Road and the Island Highway, was not called to testify on the objection of his counsel, Stuart Henderson, that he was charged with manslaughter in another court.

In charging the jury, the coroner, Dr. E. C. Hart pointed out that there had been some evidence of drinking in connection with the case. He warned the jury that it was not trying whether the driver of the offending car had been operating while under the influence of liquor.

Every driver was obligated under the law to operate in a prudent and careful manner. Drinking was no excuse for violating this rule laid down by the law. There was no evidence, he said, of imprudent driving up to this point where the accident occurred. It was for members of the jury to say whether there had been prudent operation of the FINDING PRINCIPLE.

There was evidence, he pointed out, that the brakes were not in order. He warned the jury that only if they found grossly careless actions on the part of someone, should a verdict of manslaughter be given.

After being out for fifty-five minutes, the jury returned and offered a verdict "that the deceased came to his death by negligent driving."

Dr. Hart declared he could not accept this as a verdict. The verdict in such a case would of necessity be one of murder, or manslaughter, or accidental death.

If the jurors could not find a proper verdict, he would, under the law, have to bind them over to appear before the judge of the court to explain the situation.

After being out the second time for fifteen minutes, the jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

The jury was composed of James Van Norman (foreman), Ridgeway Wilson, Murdoch McKenzie, Charles French, Frank Gibson and Edward Tupper.

Stuart Henderson appeared as counsel for Mr. Loughlan, while Roy Munger appeared for the family of the late Mr. Plowright.

COLCHESTER—The funeral for the late Mrs. Esther Belle Nankivell was held yesterday afternoon. A number of friends attended the service, conducted by Rev. F. V. Venables. Beautiful floral offerings surrounded the casket. The congregation sang the hymn "Abide With Me," and Mrs. S. M. Morton sang the solo, "Some Day We'll Understand." The remains were laid at rest in Colwood Burial Park. The following acted as pallbearers: J. Goodman, J. Shepherd, J. Cullingford and George Woods.

CROSS—Funeral services for Mrs. Frances Catherine Cross will be held in Sands Mortuary Chapel this afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. G. R. V. Bolster will officiate and interment will be in Ross Bay Cemetery.

JAMES—Many friends were present Friday afternoon at St. Michael's Church, Royal Oak, to pay their last respects at funeral services conducted for Percy James. Rev. Canon Wickens and Rev. Canon Nunn officiated; during which were sung the hymns "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Peace, Perfect Peace," the Twenty-Third Psalm and the Nunc Dimittis. The large number of beautiful floral tributes received testified to the high esteem in which Mr. James was held. Many prominent Masons of the city were present, including the Grand Master of British Columbia, Most Wor. Bro. S. McClure. The Masonic burial service was conducted at the graveside by Wor. Master J. Burt Smith, of Henderson Lodge, No. 24, A.F. & A.M. The following acted as pallbearers: Most Wor. Bro. S. McClure, Rt. Wor. Bro. R. Hetherington, Wor. Bro. J. A. Dinsmore, T. Brown, W. M. Walker and W. Barrowclough. The honorary pallbearers were: H. C. Oldfield, B. Oldfield, E. Birch-Jones, J. Page, H. H. Cullis and G. F. Salmon. The remains were laid at rest in the family plot at St. Michael's Church Cemetery.

SPENCER CHOIR ASSIST V.O.N.

Programme of Pleasing Variety Given at Empress Hotel Ballroom

A dependably popular event is the annual concert of the David Spencer Choir, which last evening at the Empress Hotel gave a highly pleasing programme in aid of the Victorian Order of Nurses.

At all times conducted with nice discretion by Frank Tupman, the choir sang at more than usual strength, approximately forty-five voices, with a prevailing sweetness of tone in the women's section and a conspicuous improvement in the quality of the male-voice section.

Among the particularly happy numbers were Daniel Wood's "Garden of Happiness," the unaccompanied close-harmony "In the Time of Roses," the accompanied "Swing Along" of W. M. Cook, Dorothy Foster's "Rose in the Bud," Eaton Fanning's "Song of the Vikings" and Vaughan Williams' unaccompanied "Sweet Day," which had some beautiful shading. Other particularly favorites were the gay vocal waltz by Lane Wilson, "Carmena," "Oh Dear, What Can the Matter Be" (arranged by Bantock), and Schubert's "To Music," which had good legato.

STRING QUARTETTE

The Haydn string quartette provided the other musical material on the programme, showing commendably good taste. They played Haydn's Quartette No. 66, Opus 74, No. 2, and the Beethoven Scherzo Quartette No. 4, Opus 18. The ensemble is composed of Chris Miller, Gilbert Margison, J. Pimm and Bert Botton.

Ernie Cole, the other assisting artist, is deservedly well known. Her work shows authority, finesse and complete confidence. "Going to Bed Early" was a clever take-off of a modern co-ed. "At the Matinee" was an amusing composite sketch; and the programme was rounded out by the monologue, "Danny."

Mr. Tupman read a message from Miss Frances Fitz Gibbon, president of the Victorian Order of Nurses, expressing regret that owing to serious illness she was unable to be present, but thanking the choir for their consistent help. With the message was a beautiful basket of flowers which Frank Tupman, with the choir's permission, presented to Miss Gwen Harper, the gifted accompanist. Another bouquet was presented to Mrs. Campbell, the choir's helpful vice-president.

MAKES ONSLAUGHT ON ESTIMATES FOR YEAR

Alderman T. W. Hawkins, chairman of the seventy-fifth anniversary celebration committee, asked that estimates for the event be increased from $3,500 to $10,000. He mentioned that no sums had been allocated for May 24, Navy Week, July 1, or band concerts, and could not see why the Provincial Government should be asked to stand the entire cost. Alderman Hawkins was directed to have his committee draw up a full report on the celebration programme for presentation at the next estimates meeting.

Estimates passed by the committee included $12,072.80, municipal council; $6,575.40, legal department; $3,500, legal department maintenance; $2,425, comptroller's office; $3,120, assessor's office; $1,226.75, city clerk's office; $3,350, City Hall maintenance; $196, purchasing agent's office; $480, wiring inspector's office; $1,530, land department; $145, stores department maintenance; $714, Ross Bay Cemetery maintenance; $200, Central Park fence; $475, pound department; $1,500, cluster lights; $1,180, market; $8,886, Home for Aged and Infirm Men, and $49,500, Jubilee Hospital.

TWO INCREASES

Reductions totaled $835, while increases in estimates amounted to $1,350. The only two increases were Jubilee Hospital infirmaries cases, $7,200 per annum to $8,400; and Salvation Army, $250 to $400.

When Alderman James Adam remarked that the city should make a grant to St. Joseph's Hospital, it was decided to seek advice of the city solicitor on the city's position in the matter.

After several sessions on estimates, they will be delivered to a special "cut throat" committee for final pruning. Estimates passed last evening were not final.

Successful Annual Dinner Is Held by Pacific Club Here

Magistrate Henry C. Hall, K.C., Principal Speaker
—Members Give Interesting Recollections—
Entertainment Also Feature of Banquet

WITH over 100 members, ex-members and their friends present, the annual dinner of the Pacific Club was held in the clubrooms last evening, Leonard Batchelor, president of the club, was in the chair.

Magistrate Henry C. Hall, K.C., a pioneer member, was the principal speaker and proposed the toast to the province. In his talk, Mr. Hall outlined the wonderful natural resources and beauties of the province as observed on a recent trip.

CO-OPERATION NECESSARY

In conclusion, Mr. Hall welcomed the new members of the club and stated it was the co-operation of the older members with the younger ones that would make the club an important link in the social life of the city.

W. M. Halliday, J.P., replied to the toast and related several amusing incidents relative to pioneering in the province. W. C. Moresby, K.C., proposed the toast to the club. Mr. Moresby traced the history of the organization from its birth in 1894, when the former Victoria Club was reorganized under the present name.

Speaking also on behalf of younger members, Mr. Moresby said they must be encouraged if the club was to prosper. Organized for the purpose of providing social entertainment for Victoria's businessmen and their employees, the Pacific Club enjoyed its most prosperous year in 1913.

LIFE MEMBERSHIPS

As a result of thirty-five members contributing a lump sum in 1910 in exchange for life memberships, the club was put on a solid financial basis and in 1910, with over 500 members, realized a profit of $6,000. Assets at this period represented $43,000. However, after the war, membership fell off considerably and recently attempts have been made to swell the lists, the speaker said.

Clifford E. Denham, past president of the club, urged members to make use of the facilities of the club. By this method, Mr. Denham said, the club would continue to grow and be

Clean-Up Campaign

TODAY ends the annual Clean-Up, Paint-Up campaign sponsored by the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce, and with it the city's offer to remove surplus rubbish from city homes. Merchants, organizations, transportation companies and a wide variety of interests co-operated in the drive, which created appreciable incidental employment, both through the Employment Service of Canada and privately. All agencies joined yesterday in expressing their thanks to the public for co-operation in the campaign, which had for its aim improvement of the city.

a credit to the city. H. M. Elliott, president of the British Columbia Land Surveyors, also spoke, and thanked the club for the kindness extended to his group in the past.

Through the good will of the Pacific Club, the surveyors had been able to hold general as well as board meetings, and had always been welcomed in a friendly spirit, Mr. Elliott said.

During the dinner and following the addresses, community singing was led by W. C. Hudson. An entertaining musical programme was provided by Arthur Jackman, who rendered several fine vocal solos; Len Foster, who gave ten whistle solos, and Herbert Stock, entertaining with his guitar and mouth organ. Fred Pitt was accompanist for the evening. C. E. Brown, P. W. Bell and Brian Hunnington comprised the committee responsible for the affair.

FESTIVAL OF B.C. MUSIC TO BE HELD HERE

Representatives of All Victoria Choirs and Musical Clubs to Attend

CELEBRATION TO BE HELD AT CATHEDRAL

By the kind permission of the bishop, dean and chapter, Christ Church Cathedral will be used for a civic and provincial official celebration of the Coronation of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth. This function will be in the form of a festival of British music rendered by the Victoria Choral and Orchestral Union.

A state performance will be given on Thursday, May 13, and a public performance on Friday, May 14. The state performance will be attended by Government and municipal officials, representatives of the navy, army, ex-service organizations, etc. Owing to restricted space, admission to this performance will be by ticket only.

The committee desires to extend invitations to the state performance to members of all choirs and musical clubs in the city. Allotment will be made on the basis of two seats for every ten members of a choir or club. Names and addresses of those desiring cards of admission should be sent, through the secretaries or chairmen of the various organizations, to George Phillips, honorary secretary, 1416 St. David Street, as soon as possible. Individual applications cannot be accepted. In order that all denominations of religion may be represented, cards of admission have been allotted to the Victoria Ministerial Association for distribution among the members of their congregations.

MILITIA TO MAN FORTS

Increase Necessary for Defences Will Come From Non-Permanent Force

OTTAWA, April 9.—The increase in personnel necessary to man Canada's expanded coastal defences, which are stressed in the Government's present defence policy, will be drawn mainly from the non-permanent militia, Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of Defence, disclosed yesterday.

After October 1, manning the fortresses at Halifax and Esquimalt will become the responsibility of local militia units instead of the permanent force as at present. Provisional instructions preparatory to the change have already gone out to the district commanding officers, the minister stated.

The permanent force, which is now manning those defences and also providing instruction to the non-permanent militia, will become more exclusively instructional as the coastal defences are increased, he added. It will continue to look after maintenance of forts and equipment.

To train the non-permanent militia for their new responsibilities it is expected the training period of units involved will be doubled this Summer, so that they will be prepared to assume their new duties on October 1.

ROBBER'S BULLET KILLS COMPANION

Man Killed When Struggling With Policeman After Pair Found Breaking Into Warehouse

MONTREAL, April 9.—A man identified as Philippe Fletcher, twenty-four, was shot and killed last night by a companion's gun as he struggled with a policeman who had found the pair breaking into a warehouse in suburban Outremont. Fletcher received two bullets, apparently intended for Constable Clarence Ball, of the Canadian Pacific Railway Police. Shot in the head, he died almost instantly. His unknown accomplice escaped.

Constable Ball had found the two men in front of the grocery warehouse. As he grappled with Fletcher, the other man ran off into the darkness.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHER FETED

Matthew C. Hooper Honored on Retirement by Parishioners of St. Matthias'

Pupils, teachers and friends of St. Matthias' Church gathered at the parish hall to honor Matthew C. Hooper after twenty-three years of service given to the work of the Sunday school. The regrets of Dean Quainton, Rev. H. T. Archibald, priest-in-charge of St. Matthias' Church for some five years, and of Rev. E. O. Robathan, who were unable to be present, were recorded.

A short musical programme, under the direction of Eric Edwards, was provided. Miss Meneley supervised games for the children and a Sunday school literature display.

Rev. Alan Gardiner outlined the place of the Sunday school in the life of the state and church, and

"Silent Barriers," Starring Richard Arlen, Begins Run at Capitol Theatre

A charming young Viennese actress gets her first big part in pictures in "Silent Barriers," the new Gaumont-British railway construction drama starring Richard Arlen, which comes to the Capitol Theatre today.

Her name is Lilli Palmer and she plays the part of Lou, gold-digging dancing girl at the "Rat" Trap Saloon, one of the roughly-built taverns that sprang up in the wake of the Canadian Pacific Railway when it was being built in the eighties.

Lilli's first picture for Gaumont-British was "First Offence," the picture of motor-bandit adventure in France in which, by her work with John Mills, she established herself as an actress of promise, and which earned her a contract. Next came "Secret Agent," and then the trip to Canada involved by her leading role in "Silent Barriers."

HEDLEY AMALGAMATED

An interim report dealing with the promotion and sale of Hedley Amalgamated stock makes interesting reading, especially to punters on the Vancouver Exchange. It finds there were "visionary" and "false" reports from the mine, that "an appearance of market activity was created," and members of the directorate "sold optioned and escrow shares on the exchange." The recommendation is that either the Government or the Vancouver Stock Exchange should take action to remedy abuses of existing trading regulations under which "those with inside knowledge of the facts liquidated their shares at the expense of the general public."

In relation to this interim report, Mr. H. G. Garrett, the British Columbia superintendent of brokers, says no offence was committed and that the promotion and vicissitudes of the Hedley Amalgamated mine "were not out of the ordinary with respect to mining affairs in British Columbia." Mr. T. D. Pattullo says that when the final report is submitted to the Government "appropriate action will be taken." Just what the action will be, if no offence has been committed, and if the history of Hedley Amalgamated shows nothing out of the ordinary with respect to mining affairs in British Columbia, is a matter of speculation.

The fact is, that the interim report has left an unsavory taste, coupled with the suspicion that all is far from being right in gambling in mining stocks in this Province. Obviously strict regulation by legislation is necessary to prevent the public from being hoodwinked. There is no greater gamble than that in mining stocks. It is the clear and inescapable duty of the Provincial Department of Mines to know what is going on, and to give accurate reports respecting properties so that the public will have at least a gambling chance in the market. The question that now arises in the public mind is whether or not the Provincial Administration did in the past suppress any facts respecting the Hedley Amalgamated property. It is the process of gambling in mining shares as a whole that arises out of the interim report, and supervision over this should be exercised by the Provincial Government. One may well question the "healthiness" of "investment" in the mineral resources of the Province when the following appears in the interim report on the affairs of Hedley Amalgamated:

"The heavy trading by brokers for their own accounts raises questions which are of serious concern to the public. Businessmen and brokers themselves, who are confining their activities to a strictly brokerage business, are in accord that steps should be taken by the Vancouver Stock Exchange or by the Government to check abuses which are bound to arise by reason of the practice (the creation of an appearance of activity in the stock market). In and out trading by brokers (which costs them no commission, or merely a nominal commission) creates a false appearance of activity in the market. It is usually the first step in a manipulative manoeuvre. A broker who is trading both for himself and for a customer is in a position to accept a purchase for himself if it is beneficial, or to confirm the purchase to his customer if it is not. No other trustee which (that) I know of is allowed in these days to occupy such a position."

CHARACTER TRAINING IN SCHOOLS

There is general agreement among educators that the mere accumulation of general knowledge, the acquisition of skill and application in literary or other fields of art, or specific training in this or that vocation or calling, are of less ultimate importance as educational objectives than the development of character and personality. There is general agreement also that it is chiefly by means of the disciplinary methods and the moral attitude of the teacher, day by day, in his handling of school problems, whether intellectual, artistic, or vocational, that effective moral training is carried on. A good example is a powerful aid in moral development, and something can be done by means of precept and direct instruction in the requirements of ethical theory. Mainly, however, moral influence is exerted continuously through the medium of the ordinary activities of the schoolroom. There is alternation of studies provided in the teacher's time table. Arithmetic is taken up for a period and then discontinued. Literature has its turn, and is followed by manual training. In moral training, on the contrary, there are no intermissions or off-periods.

The importance of this phase of education has led to the proposal that teachers should record upon the Report Card of each pupil an estimate of his character and personality traits. Why, it is asked, should a mark be assigned for proficiency in the several subjects of study that are admitted of less importance than moral character, while no definite report is made upon the latter? True, there is a time-honored custom of reporting upon the pupil's conduct as excellent, good, fair, and so on down the scale, but this proposal goes much farther. Apparently the idea is to employ a definite mathematical rating in the matter of character so that the parents who receive the report-card may have the teacher's opinion, not only that John stands at 70 in arithmetic and 65 in geography, but that his mark in character and personality is 59.

According to press reports, this subject was very fully discussed at the annual meeting of the Manitoba Educational Association the other day. The discussion was long and spirited, and proved in fact to be the most contentious one of the entire conference. A resolution was introduced expressing approval of the idea, but it failed to meet with the views of the majority. The convention approved of giving character training greater consideration in the curriculum and advised further study of the subject, but expressed the opinion that it is not possible for teachers, as yet untrained in the difficult task of rating character accurately, to make out such report cards with scientific accuracy and justice.

The conference would have been justified in going farther. Educational science has a long way to go before the very wisest of men, to say nothing of the schoolmaster or schoolmistress of average intelligence, could possibly undertake the task of assigning a mathematical rating to the moral achievements of human beings, their growth in the graces of honesty, truthfulness, fair dealing, courtesy, benevolence, justice, fortitude. The adventurous souls who would undertake such a task apparently believe that there is even now a scientific basis for such procedure and that it is available for the ordinary teacher, but the "science" of accurate measurement and evaluation of moral qualities in human beings has not yet come into existence.

CREDIT WITHOUT DEBT

Social Credit proponents have always been dogmatic, but the most outright of all is The Calgary Albertan, official organ of the creed in the neighboring province. It says: "When we speak of Social Credit we do not mean social debt. We mean credit without debt." There is candour personified. Social Credit, therefore, means something for nothing. That is how it appeared from the beginning; it is a right without any responsibility. No wonder The Toronto Financial Post should comment on this simple definition as follows:

"That sentence does more to explain Social Credit than all the books that Major Douglas has laboriously penned over a long term of years; than all of Mr. Abernethy's radio fantasies; more than columns of Hansard reports of the addresses of John H. Blackmore and his associates. Social Credit is simply credit without debt. Simple, is it not? It is a system under which you can borrow all the money you need and never owe it to anyone and therefore never have to pay it back or pay interest on it. It is a system whereby you can issue money and never have to redeem it. It is a system of obtaining something for nothing. Credit, without debt! We are all for it; but then there are a lot of things we need in this world besides credit without debt. We need good crops without rainy weather to spoil our golf. We need birth without death. We need progressive improvement without the nuisance of change. We need pay without work, laughter without tears, magnificent appetites without stomach-aches; heat without fuel; power without energy; knowledge without study."

Major Gladstone Murray, general manager of C.B.C., in a speech at Montreal, made reference to Canada being a bilingual country and declared that national broadcasting recognized this fact. Well! Canada is a bilingual country, yet Mr. Mackenzie King in Parliament made it a point declare with emphasis that the Government had not been consulted before Major Murray made his speech. The moral is that, no employee of the Government should say anything without consulting the Administration. The better moral still is to say nothing at all, because Ministers of the Government, of all Governments, appear to want to do all the talking themselves.

ONE RADIANT HOUR

If I could summon back one radiant hour I would not hesitate a moment's space; And you, too, will remember, Sweet, the place We sat one afternoon beneath a bower Of roses when the vine was in full flower. The snowy blossoms away near your face Sighed enviously that they should lack your grace And you hold more than they of beauty's dower. You plucked a bud and tucked it in your hair. I never saw a flower look so proud, So utterly content; it rested there A silver censor on a golden cloud.

If I could live again one precious hour 'Twould be that afternoon beneath the bower. —Fitzhugh L. Minningoerde, in The New York Times.

Note and Comment

By Sandham Graves

Our First Minister has a newer title than that of His Majesty's Counsel, learned in the law. It is "Eternal General," and the title was invented by "Maggie Johnson" Wyndham, of Texas Creek, who is known through the north for wonderful stories and a stout heart. Printed from the entertaining columns of the Bridge River-Lillooet News, Mr. Wyndham's letter was as follows:

"Eternal General
Victoria, B.C.

"Dear Sir:
"Would like to know. The right way to take care of my own outfit in your glorious province. I've made four tries to get started but it seems as though was in a poker game and the cards are stacked against all first class active business. Came in with a friend onto the Cherry Creek Ranch. My partner decided he couldn't pay for the ranch went back to Alberta and the Heron Brothers took the ranch. Tried sheep at Soda Creek, 166 Caraboo just make it go. Bought in 170 head of sheep. Just had to sell out. Last fall came in with 232 head coming up the trail met a policeman. He told me he had to take my gun as it was strictly against the Law. When a man has to pack his bed, a weeks grub. He can't hardly pack a Standard rifle. Now the coyotes are after my sheep on top of a 50% loss went to my neighbor asked him to trap them he said he could not get a licence to kill virmine. But I have seen him and it was all right. I've studied out provincial Laws. Some of the most useless animals are the best protected the fisherman has to wait till the season opens to catch a trout. But the King fisher and the Loon is protected—why the Lord only knows. A man invests his money and goes to improve the province. He has lots of taxes to pay. The only man that seems to get a fair chance is the man who doesn't work or own anything. Can you please tell me a way out. Was hammering out a wedge in a black Smith shop a policeman came in I lodged a complaint that the road sides were all crowded with slush he told me I ought to pay you avist But he wouldn't hear my sheep while I did it Yours Truly
JOHN WYNDHAM."

Knowing the Eternal General as I do, I am sure he will appreciate that letter. Gertrude Stein may be more fussy with her capitals and her commas, perhaps, but not even Gertrude could surpass the poignancy of that cry from the wilderness. It makes me want to go right there and herd the sheep, so that they may come to Victoria and regard our immortals for a while. I am sure, Mr. Wyndham, you would be much better pleased with the ranges, after that. After all, up at Texas Creek you can't get bitten by the stock market; and also if you want to buy a potato from your neighbor, you can do it without an inquisition from the market board. Then take the coyotes, even. They keep the dude ranchers away. Even the police up there seem hard put to it to find something to do. Keep going, Johnny, you may find a mine with paying stones in it, yet, and then your fortune will be truly made. You can sell paving blocks for ore in Vancouver—they will buy it like hot cakes; but watch out for the option and escrow shares. Say you will take cash! Only if you are coming to Victoria, you had better hurry, because since the discovery of relativity nothing is eternal, and we wouldn't want you to have the trip for nothing!

Experiences this week suggest that neither Vancouver nor Victoria has outgrown the run-around-visitors habit. Fifty school children stood in a rain shower at the docks this week, shouting "We want Deanna." It was natural and a friendly impulse, but that is all. If film stars or celebrities come to the city this season we can give them either a mobbing that will tear all the clothes of their backs; or the still greater honor of perfect freedom to come and go as they please. Which do you think they would prefer? At any rate we ought to establish the twenty-five yard lines, so that they will at least have air. Think it over, before the rush begins.

RAILWAY REVENUE

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily Colonist of April 10, 1887)
The Messiah—The interesting performance of Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," for the first time in British Columbia, will be presented tomorrow evening. We had the pleasure of being present at the final rehearsal on Thursday, and from the ease and certainty with which the various solos and choruses were rendered, we predict a most successful and successful performance of the seats in the parquet and the private boxes have been taken some days since. There are still places to be had in the dress circle, and those who are interested in the oratorio, should be there to see the band and chorus will play and sing the National Anthem specially arranged by Mr. Sorge.
From Winnipeg—W. W. McMillan, of the firm of D. H. McMillan & Bros., Winnipeg, is in the city with the view of introducing in this market their superior flour. The firm has large mills both at Winnipeg and Qu'Appelle, and enjoy a large patronage throughout the Dominion. They are largely interested in millinery and propose doing a considerable amount of trade in this province.

SOCIAL CREDIT

Sir,—I notice a gentleman tell you that you are only printing half-truths on Social Credit, and go to it. Will place before him full truths and ask him his answer.

The Dominion or provincial governments hardly ever can balance their budgets and so go on borrowing more of the public's money to enable them to do it. Then the cities and municipalities are mostly in a worse plight than the governments and the principal cause of such a plight is blamed on the charge of relief to the unemployed, and the number getting relief for the whole of Canada are not getting $25 each per month; that was the Social Credit promise. Also the unemployed are getting these benefits are very few more than the population of Alberta; some put the number at 200,000 or less, or if relief is the cause of nearly making Canada bankrupt, what will Social Credit do? Ask yourself and see if you can answer it. F. J. BRADLEY, 908 Loyal Street, Esquimalt, B.C., April 4, 1937.

THE WAR VETERANS' APPEAL, 1937

"The War Veterans' Appeal, 1937," offers sound information to all war veterans and their dependents on topical ex-service men matters, and will contain among other features:

1. Two articles on full Federal responsibility towards all needy veterans and their dependents.
2. Brief of Ex-Service Men's League to War Veterans' Assistance Commission, November, 1936.
3. A digest of the much-discussed interim report of the Veterans' Assistance Commission, by Grant McNeill, M.P. for North Vancouver.
4. Vancouver local committee. Veterans' Assistance Commission appeal to British Columbia employers of labor.
5. "American Veteran Pay Marches," since George Washington.
6. British Columbia canteen funds, 1936, official report, and letters re annual provincial grant of $10,000 to administer what?
7. Ontario Act, to regulate unemployed charities in full.

We also publish data on how to apply for the war veteran allowance, and last Summer's amendments to the Pension Act, also the official article of the Imperial Veterans in Canada, and full minutes of recent Veteran Unity Conference at Obrien Hall, this city.

IMMIGRATION

Sir,—Those who oppose a new immigration policy for Canada have some very good reasons for their views. The question of immigration in Canada has suffered the vicissitudes of public discussion for many years. It has been advocated and rejected just as many times, and in the minds of some it has assumed the appearance of a sectional controversy.

The Toronto Globe and Mail in its issue of March 22 deals with the issue and says in part: "Admitting these conditions, they do not constitute a denial of the need for more people here, and in the other Dominion. If we in Canada have learned anything from the drought and depression, it is that agriculture would not have been so completely paralyzed if we had had a broader consuming and more diversified producing base. We realize that the social and economic progress of this country, shackled by debt, will be not only retarded but rigidly restricted unless the population is greatly increased and the existing base enlarged proportionately during the next twenty-five years."

Undoubtedly the West has suffered from extravagant and faulty settlement schemes—and from poor settlers. That is only half the answer. The other half is that settlement "stopped too soon."

Recently The London Times summarized the outlook on Empire settlement in this way: "The day when the economic life of the Dominions will again enter upon a phase of expansion is certain to come. Our business is to make ready for it so that those who answer the call for labor shall not be mere pawns in the economic game, but shall be in a position to turn the new opportunities to proper account in their own lives."

The Globe and Mail takes the position that there is a fresh basis for co-operation and "any number of sound, undisputed reasons, political and economic, as to why we must reorientate our views to include a settlement scheme."

The experience of previous schemes mark the pitfalls. We know immigration and development must go hand in hand. We know our settlers must be readily assimilable, and we know they must be preponderantly British, and speaking of realities, the article concludes with the pregnant statement that there is "no substitute for immigration in any economic programme."

and the sooner we realize this, the sooner we shall get back to realities in this country."

How About It?

Victoria will celebrate its diamond jubilee this year. There's going to be big doings in the old town and sport will do its share to provide entertainment for citizens and visitors. Perhaps Promoter Fred Richardson will stage a monster wrestling tournament as his contribution to the celebration. Leading heavyweights could be secured for open air shows at the Royal Athletic Park. With a number of "beeg boys" really doing their stuff, there's no reason why the tournament should not be successful, even from a financial angle. How about it, Mr. Promoter?—S.T.

Sniffing Snuff

Great Britain always has had a large number of snuff-sniffers, but the habit, it was thought, was confined almost entirely to masculine users. But that isn't so any more. For now it has been revealed, women are the largest purchasers of snuff. The English fad has now reached this continent and one tobaccoist says that the snuff habit has been increasing so fast that he now sells twice as much to women as he does to male customers. It took the men a long time to acclimate themselves to the idea of carrying a special brand of cigarettes for the best girl. Is it possible that they will soon have to transport a snuff box around, too?—M.R.

Told to Sit Out

When the Hoyle-Brown basketball team went to Vancouver to meet Spencers in the British Columbia Coast final last Wednesday night they carried along with them Tommy Macedo, Victoria referee. Local officials figured on Macedo handling the game along with a Mainland arbiter, but their figuring was out a "mile" for British Columbia cage bosses in Vancouver promptly ruled the Victoria referee out and placed Joe Polley and Ralph Thomas in charge. Arguments over referees for senior "A" games have always been an annual affair, and the British Columbia officials can rule accordingly, and usually do, but never before have they taken any action concerning the arbiters in a senior "B" final. This year they did for the simple reason Victoria took out a court writ against the British Columbia body earlier in the week. Provincial officials were waiting for a chance to "even the score," and it came when Macedo arrived on the scene. Immediately he was told to sit on the side lines. Such actions by the governing body of British Columbia basketball are certainly uncalled for, and the sooner these certain officials are told to "play ball" or get out for the good of the game, the better.—J.D.

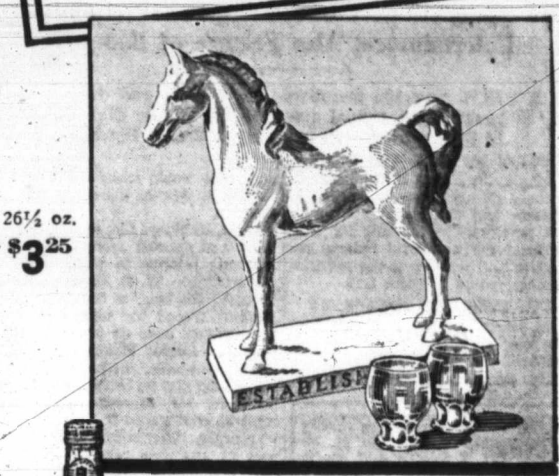

A Market at the Door

The housewives of the district in which I make my home have, I am told, a new game—that of counting the number of people who call upon householders during the day. No score is allowed for the grocer, the butcher or the baker, the pleasant soul who reads the electric meter, or the postman. Extra points are given for Sunday callers, and these, I believe, are by no means rare. One morning, quite recently, the benevolent Oriental, whose ambition it is to mow the lawn and hew wood, dropped in, followed within the quarter hour by an insurance salesman. He was succeeded in due course by a lady selling perfume; a gentleman offering cars; a magazine salesman, not, thank heaven, earning his way through university; a Hindu selling wood, "veree dry, sair," and two other entrepreneurs offering well-known household utensils. On the Sabbath there came a gentleman selling tracts, pointing the way to salvation and indicating the paths of righteousness. It is entertaining of course, to a point, particularly if the goods are worth while and the "lady of the house" has the money. But this repetition must, of necessity, cause a certain coldness on the part of the would-be purchaser who, after all, budgets for the week's expenses and has but little left over.—B.G.

On Peter's "Putt-Putt"

Not long ago we saw Peter's 400-hp-power motorcycle parked outside the City Hall, where it had been left by a friend after a precarious ride from Cadboro Bay. Upon gazing at the famous machine we noticed a large button affixed to the rear axle bearing the word "press." We pressed it, but nothing happened. We examined the rest of the "putt-putt," expecting to find various other parts marked "push," "shove," or "heave," but were disappointed. Early in the week our tobaccoist's friend's wife awakened him from the middle of a pleasant dream and shouted in his ear: "Mac, Mac! Quick! Wake up! I hear a mouse squeak!" Mac stifled a yawn with both hands, and remarked: "What do you expect me to do? Oil it?" A friend jogging along in his "struggle buggy" near St. Louis College, reports being passed by a Provincial policeman making forty-five miles per hour past the school zone. Perhaps the limb of the law was rushing to an accident or the scene of a crime where the saving of a few minutes was all important. A Vancouver shipping firm received a letter from a youth applying for the position of shipping clerk, in which the lad stated: "For several years I have been building and sailing model yachts at English Bay and Jericho Beach, so have had a little shipping experience." Today we offer congratulations to Henry,

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson

BREAD UPON THE WATERS

Most players don't need any encouragement to give up a trick. They do pretty well at it without any help. So if your regular partner happens to be a trick squanderer of the first water; don't show him this article. It will only inspire him to new heights (or depths).

The fact remains, however, that it sometimes pays to cast a little bread upon the waters. West gave up a loaf in the hand below and got enough back to start a bakery.

West, dealer.

Neither side vulnerable.

West had a shaded two-way three bid. When East bid three no trump South considered the advisability of defending against that contract. While he had excellent prospects of defeating the contract, it would be worth little to him, since the opponents were not vulnerable and the undoubted premium for defeating them a few tricks would not compensate South for the loss of a probable game. It was foolish to double, since then West would run to four diamonds, and South would merely have to come in with his clubs at a higher level. His bid of four clubs was, therefore, quite correct. The rest of the bidding was more or less logical.

SCOTTISH WILL BE INSPECTED

First Battalion To Undergo Annual Inspection by Brigadier Monday

The 1st Battalion Canadian Scottish Regiment will undergo their annual inspection by the Officer Commanding Military District No. 11 next Monday night. Under the command of Lieut.-Colonel J. R. Kingham, the Battalion will parade in the Bay Street Armories, the examining officer, Brigadier D. J. MacDonald, D.S.O., M.C., arriving at 8:20 p.m.

With both pipe and brass bands in attendance, movements in battalion and company movements, as well as exercises in small arms and specialist training, will be carried out. The battalion colors will be paraded. An invitation to the public is extended, an excellent view of the parade and inspection being available from the balcony that encircles the drill hall.

SUCCESSES CLAIMED BY BOTH SIDES

Fall of this hill would give Government soldiers control of the campus of University City, held by insurgents for more than five months. Militiamen, a Government communiqué said, had surrounded University City and were methodically mowing down enemy forces marooned there.

The Government claimed its troops were victorious everywhere along the fifteen-mile semi-circle westward of Madrid.

IN FURIOUS FIGHT
Fiercest resistance was encountered on the Estremadura Road, leading southwest from Madrid, where advancing militiamen were held on even terms for two hours in a furious fight with insurgents barricaded in fortified buildings.

Government sappers finally placed dynamite under the redoubts. Two enemy companies were buried alive, eye-witnesses said.

Encirclement of University City was the latest development in a great Government offensive which went forward full force tonight to free Madrid from its five-month siege.

CLAIM SLAUGHTER
SALAMANCA, Spain, April 10 (AP).—Two thousand eight hundred Government militiamen were killed in the city's desperate effort to shatter enemy lines to the west, an insurgent communiqué declared today.

The Government's attacks on all fronts were beaten off, the report asserted, and numerous prisoners were taken, principally Russians, Czechoslovaks and Spaniards from Asturias.

Far to the north, on the Biscay Coast, two Government battalions were wiped out in an action on the outskirts of Oviedo, the communiqué added.

RENEW DEMAND FOR REAL HEDLEY PROBE

February 23, and why was it not done?

"Mr. Fraser's report makes no mention of any facts covering these matters," the Exchange charges. It discusses a whole series of matters which, in our opinion, had nothing whatever to do with the real issues to be investigated."

ISSUE AVOIDED
F. E. Hall, president of the Vancouver Stock Exchange, made more real issues concerning the whole Hedley situation, which he neglected by the Government. In statement issued by Mr. Hall on behalf of the Exchange, he said that from a study of the Fraser report and "from the indications as to what the future reports are to contain, we are of the opinion that the proper matters to be investigated are being forgotten."

UP TO GOVERNMENT
"There has been a continuous 'hush-hush' campaign conducted in dealing with this mine," he charged, "and although a report covering the share dealings has not been made, the people of British Columbia will not be satisfied until the entire transaction regarding the flotation and development of this property has been dragged into the light of day. The Fraser report indicates that the engineer was far from competent, and the mine manager incapable of performing his functions. Had the Department of Mines any knowledge of this, and if so, why was no action taken? The Pattullo Government seems to have allowed the shares in this property to be the football of speculators, and this has resulted in hundreds of innocent investors losing considerable sums."

SERIOUS INDICTMENT
The Financial News, usually restrained and conservative in its utterances, calls the Fraser report a most damning indictment of two departments of the government. It blames the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies for permitting the juggling of option stocks and escrow shares, as revealed in the report of the commissioner; and attacks the Department of Mines for alleged laxity in permitting the market to be buoyed by unfounded rumors of ore in sight and assay values. It also severely criticizes the suppression of the report of A. M. Richmond, M.E., made while he was resident engineer for the Government.

OFFICIAL COMMENTS
The character of the comments

made by H. G. Garrett, registrar of joint stock companies, on the Fraser report, and which were released by Premier Pattullo at the same time that he released the Fraser document, has brought further criticism upon the Government. When read in juxtaposition position the report and comments speak for themselves: Mr. Fraser says, relative to private trading by brokers:

"The heavy trading by brokers for their own accounts as disclosed raises questions which are of serious concern to the public."

Mr. Garrett's comment on this: "The course of trading in Hedley shares is what usually happens when good news is coming out about a particular property and the stock begins to be active. The public were very large participants and no doubt the stock went too high and rose too quickly. The rapid rise, too, was accelerated by the dealings by brokers themselves. There was undoubtedly in the first part of the rise a considerable element of gambling; but on the other hand the opinion began to be held that the stock was reaching the stage where it might be regarded as a promising investment."

BROKER TRADING
In his criticism of "in and out" trading by brokers to create a false impression of activity, Mr. Fraser says:

"A broker who is trading both for himself and a customer is in a position to accept a purchase for himself if it is beneficial, or to confirm the purchase to his customer if it is not. No other trader which I know of is allowed in these days to occupy such a position."

Mr. Garrett's comment on this indictment is: "Various practices disclosed by the report are open to public criticism, and probably require modification, reform or elimination. The practice of trading by brokers for their own accounts is a big problem, and has been the subject of exhaustive investigation under the Securities Exchange Act of the United States."

NOT UNLAWFUL
The Government's answer to the whole indictment of the loose practices permitted in dealing with Hedley mining shares, made by Mr. Garrett and given to the public by Premier Pattullo, is:

"These practices are not unlawful, but are not in the public interest. How far they can be remedied or controlled by legislation of regulatory action is a question that cannot be answered offhand. The concentration of opinion among those interested in mining in British Columbia yesterday was that serious injury has been done to the legitimate interests of the industry for a long time to come, and only a most searching and thorough public investigation will satisfy the public."

OPENING OF GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE

Sir,—An event of importance throughout the Northwest will be the grand opening of the Golden Gate Bridge at San Francisco, May 27 to June 2. Visitors from all parts of the United States and from other lands will gather in San Francisco for this celebration. The Kitsilano Boys' Band and a detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police will officially represent the City of Vancouver, the Victoria has been invited to send the 16th Canadian Scottish Pipe Band, and to also enter a float in the parade.

No greater opportunity has been offered in many years for Victoria to advertise itself than by making a world-wide contribution on the occasion of the official opening of the world's largest bridge. Citizens are interested to know what is going to be Victoria's response. One suggestion is to enter a float, representing an Indian Village, with a totem pole of the Thunder Bird. This could be designed into a foundation of native plants and trees. Totems are a feature only of the Northwest coast, and such a scheme would have an appeal to Eastern visitors.

Another suggestion is: This being Coronation year, would be a most unique opportunity to feature this great event at a time when people, particularly in the United States, are so intensely interested in this greatest of all world events. A replica of the Crown Jewels was recently exhibited at David Spencer's stores, in Victoria and Vancouver. It is suggested that this replica might be used to represent Queen Victoria, who as a girl of nineteen years was adorned with the originals of these Crown Jewels at her Coronation in 1837, one hundred years ago. These same Crown Jewels will also be worn and carried by King George and Queen Elizabeth on May 12 at their Coronation. It is of significance to the citizens of the Queen City, that some recognition be given to this centenary.

We most certainly think that a float should be sent to San Francisco for this celebration, and can think of nothing more suitable than a representation of the young Queen Victoria, at the time of her Coronation, one hundred years ago. Comment is invited.

GERMS AND DISEASE

Sir,—The germ theory of disease has passed out of the realm of theory into that of proved fact. It is the basis upon which modern medicine is founded. Like Mark Twain's good resolution, we are prepared to change it for a better when we see reason to do so. That time is not in sight. That the germ of cancer (if it has one) has not been found does not touch the argument where the opposite is the case. We are not omnipotent. "We be not

What of it if thousands of animals have been sacrificed, once for all, to save the lives of thousands of children to time untold? "If well-informed" people have "abandoned the theory of disease as obsolete" do they mean that there is no such thing as disease? Doubtless "pure blood is the finest germicide." That is its job. Our pathologists help it on its way. Especially the lame dogs. Please don't quote "page after page." The press is not big enough. You are quite right. None are so blind as those who won't see.

PIONEER STAGE DRIVERS

Sir,—I have before me a copy of a photograph taken in the 70's of the stage playing between Esquimalt and Victoria, bringing mails and passengers to the capital. The picture is taken outside "Capt. Stamp's" Hall, on Government Street, where View Street now intersects; there were two stores on the ground floor and the Masonic Hall was upstairs, opened and dedicated on June 25, 1866.

The stage was an open express wagon with seats arranged across the vehicle, the horses were brought from California by Mr. Wilby, the owner.

Henry Edward Wilby was the contractor and he lived in Esquimalt; he must have been a prominent citizen, for he was one of the Victoria delegates to the Yale convention, September 14, 1868. His son, William Wilby, is still in the transportation business, but not with horses.

WHAT'S DOING ON THE LOCAL RETAIL PRODUCE MARKET

A shipment of Australian grapes and pears arrived here yesterday, and a shipment of Hawaiian pineapples came in on Monday. A carload of Mexican tomatoes also came in Monday.

Asparagus is coming in daily and is retailing very reasonably. Local rhubarb is now on the market in considerable quantities and sells at 5 cents per pound. New potatoes from Texas are replacing the Florida variety.

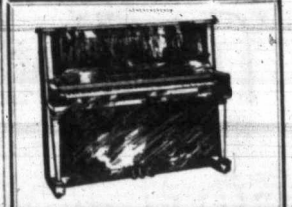

The marketing board here has reduced the price of potatoes from $7 to $9 a ton, according to local wholesalers. This action has been anticipated in Victoria ever since the prices were reduced in Vancouver last week.

Playgirl

CHAPTER XXI
They ran off the paper next morning, and after lunch he and his mother sat in the dusty little office and talked. The Guardian's circulation was up, Mrs. MacAllister told him, but she was still having to accept produce in payment in some cases. Did he still like his job? He was wonderful; everyone said so, so it must be true. But why was it he never mentioned meeting any interesting girls? Surely there were girls in New York he would enjoy taking out occasionally, and—

And presently Ronny found himself telling his mother about Sandra Brooke, and, listening, Mrs. MacAllister knew this pampered child with the dark gold hair and leaf-brown eyes was the answer to a good many questions she had been asking herself. For to her attuned ears Ronny's voice, coming over the airwaves, had revealed a strange discontent since that night just before Christmas when his wife brought the disappointing news that circumstances had conspired to deprive him of his holiday.

"My boy's in love with this Sandra Brooke," Mrs. MacAllister told herself and thought it would be a great misfortune if anything came of it. There was in Ronny's sketchy drawn picture something unstable, an indecisiveness that would make for happiness, no more in marriage than in this mood and altogether unsatisfactory friendship of which Ronny was now telling her.

Mrs. MacAllister was drawing intersecting geometrical figures on a blue pad. She twisted her head and saw Ronny grinning.

"Don't know why I've told you all this, mom. Because I've never been Ronny grinned. "And all these years I've been thinking of you as the Greenwich playgirl of the nineties."

"The nineties!" Mrs. MacAllister threw up her hands in mock outrage. "My dear boy, I was married in nineteen-ten and I was just twenty-five, your present age." She tore the page of meaningless figures from the pad and dropped it into the waste-basket. After a little he kindly eyes found her son's again. "I've always had a secret hope you'd come back to Maple Village some day, Ronny—take over the paper and settle down here. There isn't much excitement here, and I suppose how far they can be remedied or controlled by legislation of regulatory action is a question that cannot be answered offhand."

Far to the north, on the Biscay Coast, two Government battalions were wiped out in an action on the outskirts of Oviedo, the communiqué added.

February 23, and why was it not done?

"Mr. Fraser's report makes no mention of any facts covering these matters," the Exchange charges. It discusses a whole series of matters which, in our opinion, had nothing whatever to do with the real issues to be investigated."

ISSUE AVOIDED
F. E. Hall, president of the Vancouver Stock Exchange, made more real issues concerning the whole Hedley situation, which he neglected by the Government. In statement issued by Mr. Hall on behalf of the Exchange, he said that from a study of the Fraser report and "from the indications as to what the future reports are to contain, we are of the opinion that the proper matters to be investigated are being forgotten."

UP TO GOVERNMENT
"There has been a continuous 'hush-hush' campaign conducted in dealing with this mine," he charged, "and although a report covering the share dealings has not been made, the people of British Columbia will not be satisfied until the entire transaction regarding the flotation and development of this property has been dragged into the light of day. The Fraser report indicates that the engineer was far from competent, and the mine manager incapable of performing his functions. Had the Department of Mines any knowledge of this, and if so, why was no action taken? The Pattullo Government seems to have allowed the shares in this property to be the football of speculators, and this has resulted in hundreds of innocent investors losing considerable sums."

SERIOUS INDICTMENT
The Financial News, usually restrained and conservative in its utterances, calls the Fraser report a most damning indictment of two departments of the government. It blames the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies for permitting the juggling of option stocks and escrow shares, as revealed in the report of the commissioner; and attacks the Department of Mines for alleged laxity in permitting the market to be buoyed by unfounded rumors of ore in sight and assay values. It also severely criticizes the suppression of the report of A. M. Richmond, M.E., made while he was resident engineer for the Government.

He snuffed the air, jumped out of bed and rushed to the landing. "Mary," he said, hurrying back, "the house on fire. We must get out quickly. There's not a moment to lose."

"James, James, don't flurry me," she replied sharply. "I must stop a few minutes to straighten up the rooms so that they'll look decent when the firemen come in."

Tired All the Time Describes exhaustion of the nerves

The usual treatment for fatigue is rest. But when the cause of tired feelings is nervous exhaustion you are restless, sleepless and irritable and cannot rest or sleep.

You can worry and fret, you can be impatient and ill-tempered, you may suffer from indigestion and headaches. But rest or calmness or sleep are well nigh impossible.

It is necessary to build up the reserve of nerve force by such restorative treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Your nervous system has become bankrupt and new energy and vigor are necessary.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is recommended on the strength of its time-proven record of effectiveness in many thousands of cases similar to yours. New nerve force is created from rich red blood and Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is composed of the very ingredients which go to enrich the blood. For this reason every dose you take should help you in regaining health and strength and new vitality.

Silver Jubilee Dinner Held at St. Mary's Hall

Ladies' Guild Celebrated Twenty-Fifth Anniversary
At Largely-Attended Affair Last Evening—
Members Have Raised Sum of $28,500

Twenty-five years of continuous service on the part of St. Mary's Ladies' Guild was recalled by the rector, Rev. Canon Nunns, in his short address at the silver anniversary dinner, held by the guild last evening in St. Mary's Hall.

The decorated tables, at which 200 parishioners enjoyed a beautifully-arranged dinner, were bright with masses of daffodils and grape hyacinths, while tall silver candelabra on the head table held lighted yellow tapers.

GUILD FORMED
On behalf of the president, executive and members of the guild, Canon Nunns welcomed the guests. He then recalled how, in 1910, when the population of Oak Bay municipality numbered less than 500, there had been talk of building a church in the district. At that time a Guild of Church Workers was formed, whose object was to help erect and maintain a church in Oak Bay. Handsome contributions were made by the guild to the church building fund.

On April 9, 1912, the Ladies' Guild of St. Mary's was formed, the constitution drawn up by the late Bishop Doull. One charter member, Mrs. A. D. Crease, was present at last night's celebration and received a special welcome.

GRAND ACHIEVEMENT
During its twenty-five years' work the guild had raised the sum of $28,500, Canon Nunns said, the major portion of which had been given to the church, and contributions had been made to the Cathedral building fund, missionary endeavors and charitable organizations. The guild had done a great deal for the social life of the parish, and many a stranger had found a spiritual home in St. Mary's due to the friendly spirit of the guild. Canon Nunns expressed his personal thanks to the members of the guild who had arranged the dinner and entertainment.

THE PROGRAMME
Mrs. C. T. Teesdale, the president, was in the chair.

After toast to the King and community singing, in which "The Bell of St. Mary's" was the theme song as announced by Mr. Dudley Wickett, Mr. Kyle Symons, Jr., sang "The Road to Mandalay." Mrs. A. E. deL. Nunns played two delightful violin solos; Mrs. Blay sang "A May Morning"; "The Keys of Heaven" was sung by Miss June Short and Miss Gweneth Phillips; "Take a Pair of Sparkling Eyes" was sung by Mr. Dudley Wickett, and Miss Marian Schwab appeared in a captivating tap dance. Mrs. Blowers, who acted as accompanist for the evening, gave two readings, "The Fan" and "The Telegram," which were received with much applause, and Mr. Dudley Wickett sang the final number on the programme, "Auld Lang Syne," sung by the whole gathering, brought the programme to a close.

The table arrangements had been supervised by Mrs. Philip, and assisting her with the decorations were Mrs. Cullis, Mrs. Farquhar, Mrs. Ard, Mrs. R. A. Wootton and Mrs. Herbert Anson.

Mrs. C. T. Teesdale was the general convener, and the programme and stage decorations were the work of Mrs. Blowers. Seated at the head table were Right Rev. H. E. Sexton, Bishop of Columbia, and Mrs. Sexton, Rev. Canon and Mrs. Nunns, the Reeve of Oak Bay and Mrs. R. R. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gibson, Mrs. Teesdale, Mrs. A. D. Crease, Mrs. Thornton Marshall, Mrs. W. J. Goepel, Mrs. Blowers, Mrs. Nunns, Sr., Mrs. Barrowclough and Mrs. Bengough.

Hi-Jinks at Yacht Club Much Fun

The Hi-Jinks party was the cause of much merriment at the Royal Victoria Yacht Club last night, when Victoria members of the U.B.C. Alumni entertained their friends.

The party got under way at 8:30 o'clock with the distribution of bogus money for the playing of the games in the miniature Monte Carlo. Roulette, crown and anchor, under and over and bingo soon depleted or increased the finances of the guests.

FLOOR NUMBERS
The "gambling" was interspersed with floor numbers, the "Better Babies Contest" being first. This was a take-off on the Dionne Quintuplets with Mr. Neil Perry as Dr. Deane and Mrs. Hazel Hodson, Miss Betty Pollock, Miss Margaret Swanson and Miss Muriel MacKay as the babies. One of the quintuplets was absent due to a previous engagement. The "vanishing" quartette was presented by Mr. Fraser Lister, Mr. Leslie Hardie, Mr. Donald Purvis and Mr. Donald Pell. Several drastic events happened to the singers and one by one they disappeared. A comic juggling act included Dr. Alton Peabbles and Mr. John Gough, the latter acting as master of ceremonies for the evening.

Approximately 100 guests sat down to supper, which was served at midnight in the dining-room, gay with Spring flowers in the U.B.C. colors of gold and blue. The dance room was also decorated in the colors with streamers and the University crest.

DANCING ENJOYED
Dancing was enjoyed until 1 o'clock this morning, with a well-known three-piece orchestra playing the latest dance hits.

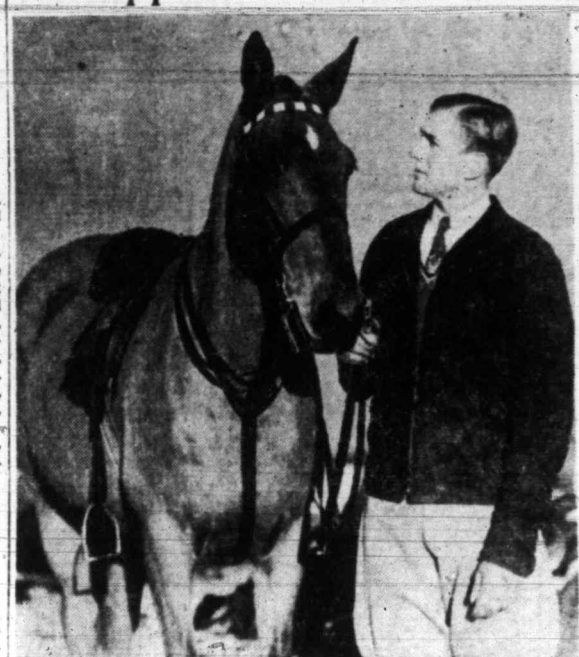

The committee in charge of arrangements was composed of members of the executive, Dr. Alton Peabbles, Miss Patricia Hamilton-Smith, Miss Muriel MacKay, Mr. Neil Perry, Mr. Donald Purvis, Miss M. Young, Miss Hazel Hodson and Mr. John Gough.

Clubs-Societies

Queen City Chapter Tea
Queen City Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold a daffodil tea this afternoon at the home of Major and Mrs. S. H. Okell, 223 Moss Street, from 3 to 5:30 o'clock. The reception rooms will be arranged with masses of daffodils and other Spring flowers, and the guests will be welcomed by Mrs. Okell and Mrs. J. M. Newcomb. Mrs. D. G. MacDonald will be the general convener and the tea arrangements will be in the hands of Mrs. K. Stephenson and her committee. The auto-graphed bedspread will be in charge of Mrs. W. Yule and there will be a musical programme and tea cup reading. A door prize will be one of the novel attractions. Major and Mrs. Okell's home lends itself admirably for such an affair and it is expected that there will be a large crowd of members and their friends.

with Mrs. M. Gillespie presiding. Arrangements for the church cleaning were attended to. The recent rummage sale was declared a success, and it was decided to hold another at a later date. The secretary's annual report and the financial report were read, the results showing a successful year. All present officers were returned as follows: President, Mrs. Mary Gillespie, 731 Wilson Street; first vice-president, Mrs. J. Potts; second vice-president, Mrs. M. Fagan; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. H. Craven, 491 Sturdee Street; councillors, Mrs. P. O'Leary, Mrs. E. Jessiman, Mrs. Malcolm Smythe and Mrs. R. White. A card party will be held in the hall on Monday at 8 p.m.

Legion W.A.

Meeting this month at Bamber-ton, the W.A. to the Malahat branch of the Canadian Legion held its regular session, with a good attendance of members. The president, Mrs. G. Orr, presided. Arrangements were made for a telephone card party to be held on Monday, April 19. A letter from the Women's Institute was read, seeking co-operation in a plan for a rest room in the village. Mrs. Orr and Mrs. J. C. Davidson were chosen to represent the W.A. in the matter. Members of the Legion were entertained at refreshments served by the Bamber-ton ladies, when J. R. Rathbone presented the W.A. with a gavel on behalf of the Legion.

St. Joseph's Auxiliary

The senior auxiliary to St. Joseph's Hospital met yesterday afternoon for the regular business meeting. There being two sewing meetings cancelled, the sewing report only showed 203 pieces completed and 123 sponges. The tag day to be held on March 8 was discussed, and Mrs. L. Jones offered to assist with the arrangement owing to Mrs. McDermott being ill. Miss M. Freeman was welcomed after a lengthy illness.

Almost Perfect Record Is Made

KAMLOOPS, April 9 (P).—Ethel Chalmers today led all competitors in the seventh annual Yale-Cariboo Musical Festival, which opened here yesterday, with ninety-nine points, a record in the festival's history, by Adjudicator Dr. J. J. Landsbury, of the University of Oregon.

Her high marks were awarded for "Slumber Song" in the girl's solo, under sixteen years, division.

Helen Harritt won first place in the boy's or girl's solo, under twelve years, with "Where the Pools Are Bright," and St. Ann's Academy School Choir, last year's winners in the school choirs, grades seven and eight, were again leading in that division. Kamloops Junior High School Choir was second.

The festival is continuing today and Saturday.

TODAY'S RECIPE

RUSSIAN ROCKS—One cup shortening, one and a half cups of brown sugar, two eggs, one cup raisins and dates cut up, one cup chopped walnuts, a little chopped peel, two and a half cups of flour, one teaspoon of soda dissolved in two tablespoons of hot water, a quarter of a teaspoon of salt. Cream butter (or other shortening), add sugar, eggs, fruit and nuts. Then add the soda, salt and flour. Drop by teaspoonfuls on to a greased tin and bake in a moderate oven until nicely browned.—Prudence.

Princess "Runs Away" With Paris Creations

PARIS, April 9 (P).—Crown Princess Juliana of the Netherlands drove Paris dressmakers frantic for a few hours when she "ran away" with six of their most exclusive creations for King George VI's Coronation. It was learned today.

Unknown to the princess, the models were packed into their roadster when she and her husband, Prince Bernhard, left Paris Tuesday for The Hague at the end of their wedding trip.

The designers had sent the models for the princess' inspection to the hotel. In the rush of packing, Princess Juliana's maid placed the Coronation gowns with the princess' other clothes.

Alarms were sent by telephone to all points along the route to the French frontier to ask the princess to send back the Coronation gowns.

Just as she arrived at the border, the alarm reached her. She sorted out the creations and started them back to Paris.

Women's Sports Said to Be Evil

VATICAN CITY, April 9 (P).—Excessive sports for women—both single and married—were criticized by the official Vatican newspaper, Osservatore Romano, today.

In a sharp attack on women's participation in sports, the newspaper said excessive sports made single women sterile and reduced the possibility of married women having additional children.

"The excess of effort and fatigue is today aggravated by all the rest of modern life," the official organ said, "since now tobacco and alcohol intoxicate the anatomical elements in woman no less than in man."

Osservatore called some women's sports events "most evil and deleterious."

Anniversary Celebrated With Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schmeltz, 1109 Finlayson Avenue, have been the recipients, during the past week, of many congratulations, good wishes and gifts of silver and flowers in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding.

Mr. Schmeltz and the then Miss Kathleen Herburger, were married at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Mears Street, Victoria, on April 2, 1912, and afterwards a reception was held at Friends' Hall, Courtney Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmeltz have been entertaining with a series of parties, terminating the affairs yesterday with an "at home." Their home has been beautifully decorated with Spring flowers in colors of pink, blue and white with silver ribbons, the refreshments carried out in the same colors.

THE GUESTS

Among those attending the various affairs were: Mr. and Mrs. Herburger (Seattle), Mr. A. Herburger, Mr. and Mrs. S. Frazer, Miss Clara Frazer, Miss Christine Schmeltz, Mr. Louis Schmeltz, Jr., Mr. Paul Schmeltz, Mr. and Mrs. G. Upward, Mr. and Mrs. J. Entwistle, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hogg, Mr. and Mrs. R. Miss Andree To Lecture On Cooking

The all-time "high" record for attendance made last year by the women of Victoria and vicinity at The Colonist's annual Cooking and Home-Making School, sponsored by the B.C. Electric, MacDonald Electric and Hudson's Bay Company, is already certain to be broken this year, judging from the responses received this week following the announcement that tickets were available.

The school, to be held on April 27, 28 and 29, with an afternoon session April 28 at the Shrine Auditorium, will be conducted by Miss Claire Andree, of the De Both Home Makers' Schools, who scored such an outstanding success last year. The school will consist of four busy and interesting sessions. The evening sessions will commence at 8 and the afternoon at 2:30.

The stage of the Shrine Auditorium is being made over into a model kitchen, laundry and dining-room, with a special lighting and arrangement of the equipment that enables everyone in the audience to see clearly each move the lecturer makes, each step she takes in the

Weddings

GURNEY-LINDSAY

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of St. Mary Magdalene, Mayne Island, on April 6 at 11 a.m. Rev. R. D. Porter officiating, when Jean Allan Wallace, younger daughter of Mrs. H. W. Lindsay, "Runnymede," Beaver Creek, Alberni, became the bride of Mr. Thomas Broughton Gurney, younger son of Captain and Mrs. A. B. Gurney, Active Pass, Mayne Island. The wedding march was played by Mr. J. Burrill, of Galiano. The bride who was given in marriage by Mr. George St. Denis, brother-in-law of the groom, looked very smart in a grey tailored coat and skirt, with a matching hat, gloves and shoes. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations of two shades. Mrs. G. St. Denis, matron of honor and sister of the groom, wore a rust-red ensemble. Her flowers were a sheaf of yellow tulips, primroses and maidenhair fern. Hugh Sutherland (Tim) Gurney, brother of the groom, was best man. Mrs. Gurney, the bridegroom's mother, wore a navy blue crepe dress with jacket and hat to match. The church was beautifully decorated with daffodils, lilies and plum blossom. Immediately after the ceremony, the bridal party left for Ganages Harbor, Salt Spring Island, aboard Mr. and Mrs. Ted Borsadale's yacht-Deirdre, which was gallantly dressed with flags for the occasion.

Canada Not Autonomous

The question "Is Canada Autonomous?" was answered by Mr. J. B. Clearihue, K.C., during his address before the Liberal Women's Forum at Liberal headquarters yesterday afternoon.

Miscellaneous Shower

The Misses Agnes and Grace Stevenson were hostesses on Thursday evening at the home of their aunt, Mrs. R. Duncan, Linden Avenue, at a miscellaneous shower in compliment to Miss Agnes Rowe, an April bride-to-be. The gifts were presented in a miniature bungalow drawn by little Emily Rowe, sister of the guest of honor. Daffodils and pussy willows in profusion were used throughout the reception room and golden "Emperors" in a silver basket with four Nile green tapers in silver sconces formed the centerpiece on the supper table. Games and singing were enjoyed during the evening. The guests were: Mesdames T. H. Horne, B. Arceman, E. Gatehouse, A. Lindley, J. Roe, Viggers, J. W. J. Sinclair, J. Stevenson, R. Duncan; Misses Agnes Carmichael, Anne Reimer, Dorothy Hall, Margaret Roe, Peace Spedding, Christie Stevenson, Isla Mitchell, Grace Duncan, Gladys Arceman, Laura Caldwell, Phyllis Wishart, Theresa Wragg, Beatrice Hawkins, Lillian Smith and Emily Roe.

Kitchen Shower

Mrs. G. W. Tanner entertained at a kitchen shower on Thursday evening at her home, 2201 Fernwood Road, in honor of Miss Daisy Robbins, whose marriage will take place early in May. The gifts were presented in a dainty pink basket with a white bow. Pink and white streamers decorated the reception room. Refreshments were served from a table centred with a bowl of daffodils and flanked by pink candles. Miss Mae Ryles assisted in serving. Mrs. J. J. Tanner was the winner of the games. The invited guests were Mesdames J. J. Tanner, G. W. Tanner, Jr., Cooper, W. Hook, J.

At Empress Hotel

Among those registered at the Empress Hotel are: Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Butler and Miss Mary Butler, Minneapolis; Miss Mary Flint, Tacoma; Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Hilliard, Tacoma; Mrs. A. A. Hastings and Mrs. A. A. Hathaway, Plymouth, Mass.; Miss Dorothy Newcomer, Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. G. Toombs, Toronto; Mrs. H. E. Carson, London; Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Francis, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Howard, Norton, N.Z.; Miss N. McCall, Portage la Proulx; Mr. and Mrs. G. Pong and family, New York City; Miss Dorothy Mellicke, Vancouver; and Mr. and Mrs. G. McLean, Winnipeg.

To Make Presentation

Mrs. E. C. Senkler left last night for Vancouver, where she will attend a luncheon to be given today at the Georgian Club in honor of Mr. J. D. A. Tripp, to whom a presentation will be made by his old pupils and friends. The presentation fund was started in Eastern Canada by Sir Ernest MacMillan as an expression of appreciation of what Mr. Tripp has done for music in Canada. He was the first graduate of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, which is this year celebrating its fiftieth anniversary.

Entertained Last Evening

Miss Ida Chisholm entertained last evening at her home on Oak Bay Avenue in honor of Miss Sadie Thorburn, who is leaving shortly for England. The guests assembled to wish her "bon voyage" included her associates at the Royal Bank, Government Street, and the wives of the staff members. Mrs. A. N. Dando and Mrs. Robert Husband presided over the supper table which had an attractive centerpiece of tulips, iris, narcissi and daffodils in a silver bowl.

Return to Mainland

The Misses Tridie and Louise Price, who with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith S. Price, New Westminster, came over to Victoria for the Prowse-Price wedding, and who have been visiting their grandparents, Mrs. C. L. Owen, Superior Street, and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Price, Richmond Avenue, have returned home.

Leaving for England

Mrs. P. Homer-Dixon and her son Douglas, will leave next week for England, where they will attend the Coronation ceremonies in London, and expect to be absent from Victoria for several months. They will sail from Montreal on April 13 aboard the Duchess of York.

On Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Barber, the former Miss Marjorie Martinson, whose marriage took place recently at St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay, are spending their honeymoon in Vancouver and Seattle, and on their return, will make their home in the field apartments.

Typographical W.A.

The Women's Auxiliary No. 65 to the Victoria Typographical Union met recently in the S.O.E. Hall. Two new officers were elected for the rest of the year, the president, Mrs. F. H. Neelands, vice-president, Mrs. J. Hough. A bridge tea has been arranged for May 6.

To Live at Lytton

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Prowse, who returned from their honeymoon on Monday, left for Vancouver on Wednesday afternoon en route to Lytton, where they will make their home. Mrs. Prowse was formerly Miss G. Ruth Price.

To Visit in South

Miss Vivienne Nock, Topaz Avenue, will leave April 17 for Seattle en route to California, where she will spend the next two months as the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. Coverdale, in Santa Monica.

Attending Funeral

Mrs. A. E. Clyde, 920 Empress Avenue, has left for Seattle to attend the funeral of her nephew, Mr. Spencer Gray, and his sister, Mrs. Mary Ann Bunker, who were killed in an airplane crash on Wednesday.

Returned Home

BRANCH PRESIDENTS

The monthly meeting of branch presidents will be held tomorrow at the home of Mr. Len Dixon, 223 Ontario Street, at 7:30 p.m. Instead of in the afternoon, as usual, a special visitor will be N. J. Southcott, Vancouver, president of the British Columbia A.Y.P.A. Council.

That Body of Yours

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

SEARCHING THOROUGHLY FOR THE CAUSE OF ASTHMA

In former days when a patient consulted a physician about his attacks of asthma he was given medicine in some form—tablets, capsules, liquids in little ampules which he was to break or crush in a handkerchief and apply close to his nose—with the statement that asthma would never kill him and this medicine would relieve the attacks.

Today it is known that asthma is due to various causes, and when these causes are removed the attacks will not return. The difficulty, of course, is in finding the cause in many of the cases.

It has also been found that just as hay fever and eczema patients are sensitive or allergic to certain foods, fur and feathers, pollen or plants and other substances, so also are asthmatic sufferers. Likewise, deformities and defects of the nose seem to be the causative factor in some cases of asthma.

About ten years ago the Asthma Research Council was organized for the purpose of promoting research in asthma and related ailments such as hay fever.

"The Council cannot offer advice or treatment to individual sufferers, who number thousands in the London area alone, but have clinics at various hospitals where asthma sufferers may obtain advice, free if necessary. Last year at the Asthma Research Clinic at Guy's Hospital, London, 610 new patients came to the clinic, and there were 6,053 attendances of old patients." The report gives a simple but vivid picture of the thorough method of seeking the cause of asthma in every case.

"All new patients are examined and investigated according to a uniform system. Very careful records are made of the exact length of time the patient has had asthma, of how often the attacks occur, the severity of the attacks, the length of time between the attacks, and whether or not the attacks sometimes stop for any length of time."

The patients are then given advice about their diet, habits and daily routine. They are advised how to avoid such substances or factors which might appear to be responsible for their symptoms; medicines and drugs which may help are prescribed, and they are then sent for a course of breathing exercises which lasts two months or longer.

After this "trial" period, cases unimproved are sent on to get "specific" treatment—skin, food, and other tests.

This looks like a thorough even if slow method, but we must remember that a formerly "incurable" ailment is being fought.

Primate Advises Parliamentarians

There has been a largely increased attendance at the historic prayer meeting held every Tuesday in the House of Commons, London. Initiated by this group, a considerable gathering of peers and M.P.'s was addressed recently by the Archbishop of Canterbury in Room 14 of the House of Commons.

The Archbishop, who was accompanied by two Free Church leaders, spoke of the need of a revival within the Church, and also urged the members present to keep their own lives right with God, to attend more regularly the opening services of each Parliamentary sitting, and to set an example to their constituents and the nation by attending upon public worship on Sundays.

Thanks were expressed by a Roman Catholic member and a Free Church member, to which the Primate responded with the words: "Let each man be true to his own faith."

Schoolmaster: "Can any boy give me a definition of righteous indignation?"

Small Boy: "Please, sir, being angry without swearing."

Grandfather Frog Starts Out to See the Great World

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Grandfather Frog looked very solemn as he sat on his big green lily-pod in the Smiling Pool. He looked very much as if he had something on his mind. A foolish green fly actually brushed Grandfather Frog's nose, and he didn't even notice it. The fact is he had been thinking ever since his cousin, old Mr. Toad, had called the day before and they had quarrelled as usual over the question of whether it was best never to leave home or to go out into the Great World. Old Mr. Toad had gone out into the Great World when he was very young, while Grandfather Frog had spent his whole life in the Smiling Pool, and each was sure that his way was best.

Right in the midst of their quarrel along had come Farmer Brown's Boy. Now Grandfather Frog is afraid of Farmer Brown's Boy. He always has been afraid of him, and ever since he was big enough to jump he has dived head first into the Smiling Pool as soon as Farmer Brown's Boy has come near. Perhaps that is one reason why Farmer Brown's Boy has liked to throw stones and sticks at him. Thoughtless people often seem to find pleasure in frightening others, you know. So when Farmer Brown's Boy appeared this time Grandfather Frog stopped arguing with old Mr. Toad and with a great splash dived into the Smiling Pool and under a lily-pod. There he stayed and watched his cousin, old Mr. Toad, grinning in the most provoking way, for he wasn't afraid of Farmer Brown's Boy. In fact, he had boasted that they were friends. Grandfather Frog had thought that this was just an idle boast, but when he saw Farmer Brown's Boy tickle old Mr. Toad under his chin with a straw, while Mr. Toad sat perfectly still, and seemed to enjoy it, he knew that it was true.

Grandfather Frog had not come out of his hiding place until after old Mr. Toad had gone back across the Green Meadows and Farmer Brown's Boy had gone home for his supper. Then Grandfather Frog had climbed on his big lily-pod and had sat there half the night without once leading the chorus of the Smiling Pool with his great deep voice as he usually did. He was thinking, thinking very hard. And now this bright sunny morning he was still thinking.

The fact is Grandfather Frog was beginning to wonder if perhaps after all Mr. Toad was right. If the Great World had taught him how to make friends with Farmer Brown's Boy there really must be some things worth learning there.

With that Grandfather Frog dived into the Smiling Pool, swam across to a place where the bank was low, and without once looking back started across the Green Meadows to see the Great World.

Next story: Old Grandfather Frog Is Stubborn.

MOODY MEETINGS WELL ATTENDED

The Moody centenary meetings in both Britain and the United States are being largely attended. In Glasgow, St. Andrew's Hall was crowded and another service was held in a nearby church. Lord Kinnaird, the King's Lord High Commissioner to the Church of Scotland, presided.

It is sixty-three years ago since Moody and Sankey began their mission in that city. The minister of Glasgow Cathedral recently spoke of Moody as "one of the half-dozen greatest men that the United States has produced."

The response in the United States has also been hearty. A series of meetings is being sponsored by the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, one of which will be held here October 10 to 15.

"Chugarum," said he, "I'll do it."

Not for the world would Grandfather Frog have admitted to old Mr. Toad or to anyone else that there was anything for him to learn, for you know he is very old and by his friends is accounted very wise. But right down in his heart he was beginning to think that perhaps there were some things which he couldn't learn in the Smiling Pool. So he sat and thought and thought. Suddenly he made up his mind.

"Chugarum," said he, "I'll do it."

"Do what?" asked Jerry Muskrat.

Popular Knit 'Jigger' Coat

by Mayfair

MAYFAIR NEEDLE-ART—DESIGN NO. 328

Sometimes these new knit coats are called "toppers," sometimes they are called "junior" or "brief coats." Regardless of the name, they are by far the most interesting fashion news of the season. They have so much glamour, are flattering, chic, unusually practical and adaptable to so many, many occasions. They are also very easy to make. This one is knit of stocking stitch throughout, is youthfully and fashionably flared, has a turndown collar, raglan sleeves, slash pockets and is finished at the neckline with large link buttons. Make it of pastels to wear over navy, white or contrasting light shades or of marine blue, navy or other dark colors to contrast with pastels. This pattern is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20 and 40. Each pattern includes a tissue pattern for blocking the garment after it is knit, easy-to-follow working instructions without abbreviations, and assembling chart.

STOP GRINNING LIKE A MONKEY, BOB—A RUN'S NO JOKE TO ME!

YOU CAN CUT DOWN RUNS! FRANK, I DID—WITH LUX!

HONESTLY? I'LL GET SOME RIGHT AWAY!

THAT'S THE THIRD RUN IN TWO DAYS—I'LL BE SKIMPING ON LUNCHES FOR A WEEK!

THAT'S RIGHT, FRANK—I HAVEN'T HEARD YOU FUSING ABOUT RUNS FOR AGES!

THAT IS TOUGH, FRANK—CAN'T YOU STOP THE THINGS?

ALL ON ACCOUNT OF LUX! IT SAVES ELASTICITY! THAT'S WHY IT CUTS DOWN RUNS!

The Lux Way to Cut Down Runs

- 1 Lux stockings after every wearing to remove perspiration.
- 2 Turn stockings inside out—squeeze lukewarm Lux suds through them.
- 3 Rinse in lukewarm water. Squeeze water out—never twist or wring! Then, shape and dry on bathroom rack—but not near heat.
- 4 Don't risk ordinary soaps (they may contain harmful alkali) or cake-soap rubbing. These weaken elasticity—then runs may start.
- 5 Lux contains no harmful alkali. It saves stocking elasticity—hence cuts down on costly runs.

Mission Themes for Four Days at the Yates Street Tabernacle

The missionary convention of the Christian Alliance will be held at the Tabernacle, 571 Yates Street, below Government, Sunday to Wednesday, April 11 to 14. On Sunday there will be services at 11 a.m., 3 p.m., and 7:30 p.m., and on Wednesday at 3 p.m., and 8 p.m.

The speaker will be Rev. Philip Henkey, of South China, who has labored there for thirty years and has a wonderful story to tell of God's blessing of the ministry of the word.

Other speakers are Rev. Mr. Volstead, from the jungles of Peru, and Rev. E. J. Richard, New York, general secretary of the Alliance board. The messages of the missionaries will be illustrated by lantern slides from each of their fields.

It is now fifty years since Dr. A. B. Simpson started this mission. It has spread East, West, North and South, and it is responsible for seventy-five million of the heathen, besides having churches all over the United States and Canada.

Rev. Daniel Walker is pastor in Victoria.

MASONS TO GO TO ST. JOHN'S

Canon Chadwick, as Past Grand Chaplain of Order, To Give Sermon

REV. CANON CHADWICK

The services at St. John's Church tomorrow will consist of Holy Communion at 8 a.m., Morning Prayer at 11 a.m., and Festal Evensong at 7:30 p.m. The preacher at the 11 o'clock service will be Rev. G. R. V. Bolton.

In the evening the Masons of Victoria district and their families will attend the service. Special arrangements have been made to accommodate the large attendance expected. Members of the congregation are asked to come as early as possible. There will be an organ recital before the service, commencing at 7:10 p.m., in which G. J. Burnett will be assisted by the Masonic choir.

During the service St. John's choir will be assisted by the Masonic choir, and the combined choirs will render the anthem "Prayer of Thanksgiving" (Kramer). The Masonic choir will also give the anthems "The Lord Is My Light" (Allison), and "Prayer Perfect" (Stenson).

The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Canon Chadwick, Past Grand Chaplain of the Order in British Columbia, the lessons will be read by M. W. Bro. R. Morrison, D.D.G.M., and M. W. Bro. F. Hughes, Past D.D.G.M., and the benediction will be given by Rt. Rev. Bishop G. E. Lloyd.

MESSAGE PLANNED FOR DISCOURAGED

Dr. J. B. Rowell to Preach at Central Baptist on Restoration of Lost Joy

"The Confession Thousands Make, 'I Have Lost the Joy I Once Had.' Is It a Sign That God Has Forgiven Me?" "How Can It Be Restored?" will be the theme at the Central Baptist Church on Sunday evening, when the pastor, Dr. J. B. Rowell, will bring another message designed to help men and women who are battling with spiritual difficulties.

At the morning service, the pastor will commence an instructive and inspiring series, entitled "Amazing Unveilings of the Glory of Christ: The Tabernacle in the Wilderness," the first being "Assembling at the Gate and the Brazen Altar." This series will be rich in spiritual truths and practical lessons for everyday life.

Seattle Man to Give Lecture on Church's Mission

In place of the usual service, Solomon Benedict, tomorrow evening at the Church of St. George, Liberal Catholic, a lecture will be given at 7:30 p.m. in Room 7, 1001 Government Street, by Henry C. Samuels, Seattle, on "The Mission of the Liberal Catholic Church."

At the morning service of the Holy Eucharist, Mr. Samuels will give an address on "Things of the Cross." The public is invited.

NANAIMO MAN TO BE SPEAKER

Rev. William Bell Will Conduct Both Services at St. Andrew's Church

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church will have as its guest preacher tomorrow, at both services, Rev. William Bell, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Nanaimo.

In the morning Miss Louise Noble will sing "Come Unto Me" (Gounod). The choir will sing Stainer's anthem "I Am Alpha and Omega." In the evening James Matheson will sing "Beyond the Dawn" (Sanderson). The evening anthem will be "O Worship the King" (Ernest Nicol).

EARLIEST PLEDGE SIMILAR TO LAST

Coronation Oath of King Ethelred in 978 A.D. Gave First Place To Religion

The first Coronation Oath taken by an English King was that administered by St. Dunstan to Ethelred at Kingston-on-Thames in 978 A.D., nearly one thousand years ago.

Here is the text of the ancient pledge: In the name of Christ, I promise three things to the Christian people my subjects: first, that the Church of God and all the Christian people shall always preserve true peace under their auspices; second, that I will interdict rapacity, and all iniquities to every condition; third, that I will command equity and mercy in all judgments. That to me and to you the gracious and merciful God may extend His mercy."

It will be noticed that in the oath of today and of that of ten centuries ago there is a pledge in regard to religion, though in the earliest it had last place. Otherwise the oaths, however much they may differ in phraseology, have all practically the same intention. The most important change, as mentioned by a writer in The Christian World, of London, was that effected in the Coronation Oath of King William and Mary, in which they committed themselves to protect the Protestant reformed religion.

BEGINS SERIES ON COMMANDMENTS

First Sentence of the Decalogue Will Be Discussed by Dr. Reid At Centennial

Rev. Dr. Andrew D. Reid, at Centennial United Church on Sunday at 11 a.m., will take for the sermon topic "Sorrow and Duty," and at 7:30 p.m. he will deliver the first of the series of sermons on "The Ten Commandments," viz., "Thou Shalt Have No Other Gods But Me."

At the morning service the choir will sing the anthem "Just as I Am" (Bowles), and in the evening the anthem "Love Divine" (Jesop), with solo obbligato by George F. H. Farmer, and the Negro spiritual "Go Down, Moses" (Burleigh).

SALVATION ARMY

Adjutant and Mrs. Edie, commanding officers of the Victoria Corps, will lead the meetings all day at the Salvation Army Citadel tomorrow.

"Midian" will be the morning theme. The Citadel Band and the Songster Brigade will take part at each gathering.

Church Life in This City Fifteen Years Ago

April 8—Rev. Thomas MacConnell, pastor of St. Columba Presbyterian Church, unveiled, at the Oak Bay branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, an honor roll tablet of those who fell in the Great War.

April 9—The honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred last night upon Rev. W. G. Wilson, minister of the First Presbyterian Church, by the Senate of Knox College, Toronto. The honor was given him as one of its graduates for effective service in Western Canada. Dr. Wilson succeeded Rev. J. G. Inkster last October as pastor of the local congregation, having come from Moose Jaw after a ministry of eight years.

April 9—Services at Christ Church Cathedral for Holy Week include addresses by Rev. F. Govenlock

Reality of Disease to Be Queried

"Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday. The golden text is: "The Lord hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he" (Jeremiah xxxi. 11).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies" (Psalms ciii. 2, 3, 4).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Sin, sickness and death must be deemed as devoid of reality as they are of good. God."

ASSISTANT WILL PREACH SERMON

Rev. E. Robathan at Cathedral—Dean Quainton to Speak at Evensong

On Sunday at Christ Church Cathedral the Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 and 9:30 a.m.

Rev. E. O. Robathan will preach at Matins at 11 a.m., and Dean Quainton at Evensong at 7:30 p.m. There will be a mission service at James Bay, in the Wolf Cub's Hall, 565 Michigan Street, at 7:30 p.m., conducted by Rev. E. O. Robathan.

Audience Will Supply Subject

At the First Spiritualist Church, S.O.E. Hall, at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow, the service will be conducted by W. Holder, whose topic will be taken from the audience. Messages will be given at the close of the service. There will be a duet by Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Williams.

TO URGE USE OF SPIRITUAL GIFTS

"A Ford on the Road and a Packard in the Garage," is the title of the evening sermon Sunday by Rev. G. A. Reynolds at First Baptist Church. The practical use of spiritual qualities will be stressed. Mr. Reynolds' sermon subject for the morning will be "The Nature of God."

The choir will, in the morning, render the anthem, "Evening and Morning" (Oakley), and Mrs. John Meston will sing "Just for Today" (Seavers). The choir's evening anthem will be B

MARINE, RAIL and AIR

Retaliatory Boycott Is Threatened by Heads Of Waterfront Union

Members of International Longshoremen's Association Will Refuse to Work Ships of Federation in Atlantic Coast Ports, Officials State

MONTREAL, April 9 (P).—Balked in their bid for control of Montreal's waterfront labor, heads of the International Longshoremen's Association said today there was "no bluff" about their threatened retaliatory boycott of firms in the Shipping Federation of Canada.

In all but a few ports up and down the Atlantic coast, the officers said, I.L.A. longshoremen would refuse to work ships of the federation. Their action would be chiefly effective in United States harbors, they claimed.

NO DATE SET

No date was set for the opening of the asserted boycott, brought on by the federation's refusal to break its 1937 agreement for Montreal with the National Independent Union of Longshoremen—a purely Montreal organization—and hire its ship labor from the I.L.A.

Manager A. L. W. MacCallum, of the federation, announced yesterday the agreement with the Independent Union, would be in force for the 1937 season that opens in a few days. The boycott was not mentioned in the announcement.

James E. Tighe, Saint John, N.B., I.L.A. vice-president, revealed International President Joseph P. Ryan, New York, had wired the federation after its announcement yesterday, declaring the union was not bluffing. If proof were needed, Ryan told the federation; he would call the longshoremen off ships today.

SEASON ENDS SHORTLY

Tighe said Halifax and Saint John would be exempted from the boycott "unless we have to bring them in." The winter shipping season for the two chief Maritime Province ports ends very shortly.

Major tie-ups would take place, Tighe asserted, in the United States Atlantic ports. He included New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Portland, Me., in the list. Some of the major shipping companies are included in the federation, which embraces concern operating ocean passenger liners as well as freighters.

KNOW HOW TO GOVERN FIJI

Colony Had "Comfortable" Surplus at End of Last Financial Year

Hon. John Craig, who is Colonial Treasurer of Fiji, was a passenger aboard the S.S. Niagara, of the Canadian-Australasian Line, arriving here yesterday morning from Suva. He is on the way to England, where he will witness the Coronation ceremonies. He is flying from Vancouver via Seattle to New York, where he will board the French liner Normandie.

FIJI PROSPEROUS

Mr. Craig stated that "Fiji is prosperous." The colony closed its last financial year with a comfortable surplus, the amount being £110,000, after all expenditures had been met. Accumulated surplus balances to the credit of the Colony now stand at £470,000, while in addition there is a reserve fund of £250,000, £110,000 of which is what he termed "free" surplus.

The treasurer of Fiji attributed the fine showing made by Fiji to increased markets and better prices for Fiji products. Sugar is still the main export item, followed by copra, gold and bananas. Gold mining produced £132,000 in the past year, with every prospect of increased production ahead. Gold is mined on two of the islands at the present time. There has been a satisfying increase in the export sale of bananas. Shipments to Canada grow slowly, but he attributes this circumstance to only one available ship each month, with limited space at that. The Colony hopes to do something with pineapples, as the Colonial Sugar Refining Company is experimenting with different methods of packing now.

Fiji would like more tourists, Mr. Craig said. He appreciated that the islands are a long way from Canada, and a number of New Zealand and Australian residents are being attracted there for vacations; while several cruise ships from New Zealand call there annually.

Mr. Craig has been treasurer of Fiji for the past seven years. He has been in the Colonial Service for twenty-eight years, and stated he had passed through Victoria eighteen years ago.

RACING YACHTS WILL BE TOWED

Plan to Fit Challenger and Trial Horse for America's Cup in United States

GOSPORT, England, April 9 (P).—The racing cutter Endeavour I, a trial horse for Challenger Endeavour II in this Summer's America's Cup yacht racing series, will be launched today, while final preparations are being rushed on Endeavour II, for launching April 15.

The cutters will leave for the United States about May 1, and will be fitted for the international racing at a yard in Bristol, Rhode Island.

Both vessels will be equipped with steering rigs for the Atlantic crossing, but it is not intended that they will move under their own power unless necessary. A Belgian fishing trawler will tow Endeavour I, and the mother yacht Viva II will tow Endeavour II.

McKinley Sailing From Rihet Piers for Ports in Far East At 6 o'clock

Sailing for the Philippine Islands by way of Japan and China ports, the American Mail Line S.S. McKinley, Captain Clyde P. Bryant, U.S.N.R., commander, is scheduled to clear from Rihet Piers at 6 o'clock this evening. The liner is carrying a large passenger list, mails and a capacity cargo. She is due at 4 o'clock from Seattle and will embark passengers and load mails at the local dock.

DUE IN SUNDAY
Coming in from Japan ports, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha S.S. Hikawa Maru is due at William Head about 7 p.m. Sunday, according to Harry Douglas, local representative of the company. For Canada there are seven cabin, twenty tourist and seventy-one third class passengers; and for the United States, nineteen cabin, nine tourist, and thirty-five third class travelers. Freight to be discharged at Vancouver comprises 1,870 tons of general, including 345 packages of raw silk.

Y.M.C.A. BOARD HEARS R. E. DAVIS

R. E. G. Davis, personnel secretary of the National Council of the Y.M.C.A. at Toronto, gave an interesting address to the board of directors of the local association at luncheon yesterday. Mr. Davis spoke on the work and projects of the National Council with relation to the various associations throughout the Dominion.

He stressed the development of the need for new trends in all departments and stated the National Council was now working with a view to giving more attention to the physical and boys' work departments of the associations throughout Canada.

Japanese Flyers Break Record of Coste and Lebriz

LONDON, April 9 (P).—The Japanese monoplane Divine Wind landed at Croydon airfield today, completing a record-breaking 9,800-mile flight from Tokyo in a little more than ninety-four hours.

Pilot Masaaki Inuma, only twenty-six years old, and Kenji Tsukagoshi, thirty-eight, wireless operator, crowned with success one of Japan's first bids for international flying honors. The plane is entirely of Japanese make.

The Japanese flyers broke the record for a hop between Japan and Europe formerly held by the Frenchmen, Dieudonne Coste and Joseph Lebriz, who ten years ago flew from Paris to Tokyo in six days and twenty hours.

LONGSHOREMEN GET INCREASE

Shipping Federation Voluntarily Announces Higher Wages for Workers

VANCOUVER, April 9 (P).—British Columbia Shipping Federation officials tonight said a five-cent-an-hour increase in longshore wages, announced today, was voluntary on the part of shipping men and that no representations for higher wages had been made to the federation by longshoremen.

The increase, which effects about 2,000 waterfront workers of Vancouver, New Westminster and other British Columbia ports, is retroactive to April 1 and gives ship men 95 cents an hour straight time and $1.42 an hour overtime and dock men 91 cents straight time and $1.37 overtime.

Waterfront work in British Columbia ports is done by unions operating under Canadian charters with no affiliation with United States labor unions.

Music Festival Notes

The Musical Festival Board decided to extend the entries in the city medallion competition to include soloists who can qualify through having won an open duet in vocal or instrumental classes in past festivals. Entries close in this competition on April 17.

All trophies must be handed in to Little & Taylor, jewelers, Douglas Street. Holders of trophies are asked to attend to this matter as soon as possible.

The opening night of the festival has been set aside for the folksong and dancing classes, and each section will be headed by a vocal group (non-competitive), representing the country designated in the competition following.

Membership tickets can be had from any member of the board.

Jane Dixon Says:

TO FORBID A WIFE THE PLEASURE OF KNOWING AND ENJOYING FRIENDS, AND BEING RESPECTFUL TO HER PARENTS, IS NOT ONLY THE HEIGHT OF INJUSTICE—IT IS UN-CIVILIZED.

Dear Jane Dixon: I'm a married woman, though I'm only seventeen. My trouble is that my husband is so jealous, he forbids me even to speak to another man, no matter who he is. I notice, though, that when my husband meets his girl friends, he speaks and is jolly just as he used to be.

It isn't just the men he's jealous of, but my parents as well. He won't stand for my going to see them. He says it's because I may meet some man there, or on my way going or coming, and forget what he told me about minding my own business when there's men around.

His family do not care for me. He knows this, yet he listens to the stories they bring him about me—none of them true. He'd rather believe them than he would me, though he must know I have no time or a single chance to do the things they accuse me of.

They say I spend money foolishly. Maybe I am not so wise about buying—I've never had a chance to learn much—but I do the best I can, and I work to make money for my own personal expenses.

TREATED LIKE A PRISONER

I'm sure his people are working to break us up, and I don't know what to do to stop them. I can't stand his treating me as if I was a prisoner, and then abusing me for things I haven't done. What can I do?—Afraid.

Answer: Even though you are a married woman, you are only seventeen, and a very immature seventeen at that. Some parts of your letter, which I have omitted, were actually childish in tone and in context. You are in no way equipped to meet the difficulties facing you in your marriage. Isn't there some adult person who can advise you wisely and impartially and help you find your way through?

How about the minister of your church? Or if you are affiliated with no church, go to any minister in your community. Your family doctor might talk with your husband and explain to him that he is doing you a real physical injury, as well as an irreparable mental and emotional one.

To forbid another human being the pleasure of speaking to his or her kind, of knowing and enjoying friends, of being respectful to parents, is not only the height of injustice and of tyranny—it is positively uncivilized.

Such behaviour is more than jealousy. It is cruelty.

HUSBAND SHOULD VERIFY COMPLAINTS

If you have given your husband no reason to suspect you of disloyalty, of flouting your marriage vows, you should refuse to play the part of slave to this marital Simon Legree.

He married you to make you happy, didn't he, not to hold you in bondage?

It may be that his mind and his heart are being poisoned by the falsehoods you say are brought to him by members of his family. If he were the right sort of husband, if he were a real man, he would take the trouble to verify or to discredit these stories. Should he prove them untrue, he would be justified in giving the talebearers a lesson they would not soon forget.

Disgruntled or critical in-laws for ever are labeling the barest necessities as gross extravagances. They don't like the color of our clothes, the color in our home; they can't even abide the color of our eyes. It is not surprising that a girl-wife of your age and your immaturity should make some mistakes about the family budget. You should take the counsel of an older woman who is schooled in such matters. If you have enough sense to earn your own personal expenses, you should have enough sense to consult a seasoned wife and a good homemaker on questions of home economics.

Stop being hurt; stop being afraid; stop complaining about what others do to you, and do something to help yourself and your home.

FINE PASSAGE FROM SYDNEY

Officers of Liner Niagara Report Fair Weather All the Way

Inbound from Sydney and way ports, the Canadian-Australasian S.S. Niagara, Captain William Martin, commander, reached Rihet Piers at 7 o'clock yesterday morning with a good passenger list, heavy mails and considerable general cargo. A number of passengers left the liner here, proceeding later in the day to Seattle by ferry. Officers of the ship reported a pleasant voyage all the way. The Niagara continued to Vancouver at 9:30 a.m.

Among the prominent travelers arriving on the Niagara were: Viscountess Galloway, wife of the Governor-General of New Zealand, going to London; Lieut.-Col. Sheffington-Smith, brother-in-law of the Governor-General of New Zealand, accompanying Lady Galloway; Col. Morrison-Bell, a retired British Army officer, also with Lady Galloway's party; Mr. and Mrs. McNamara, director-general, Post and Telegraph Department, New Zealand; and Mrs. A. R. Black, wife of the Union Steamship manager at San Francisco.

Members of the Australian tennis team on their way to Mexico City for their first match for Davis Cup honors, left the ship here and continued to Seattle last evening, the party including: J. H. Crawford, V. B. McGrath, A. K. Quist, J. Brown and C. R. Sproule, manager; Mr. and Mrs. C. Heckmanns, the former being connected with Messrs. Lohmanns, Limited, Sydney; Dr. and Mrs. Lipscomb, the former being a medical practitioner of Sydney; Dr. and Mrs. James Flynn, of the same city; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Anderson, the former being connected with the Bank of New South Wales; H. W. Elliott, director of Snow, Elliott & Company; Hon. Mrs. L. T. Adam; Hon. John Craig, colonial treasurer of Fiji; and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Sprott, Vancouver, returning from holiday in Honolulu.

What Today Means

"ARIES"

If April 10 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9 to 11 a.m., from 3 to 4 p.m. and from 8 to 10 p.m. The danger periods are from 7 to 9 a.m., from 4 to 6 p.m. and from 10 p.m. until midnight.

This is an auspicious day for forming new friendships. The average person is apt to be rather unconventional. There will be a feeling of freedom from responsibilities, and a general desire for congenial companionship. There is likely to be an unusual spirit of generosity prevailing, and money is apt to be spent freely. Pleasure seekers, as a rule, will be very fortunate in their selection of diversions and companions to share them. In carrying on conversations be prepared for a good deal of wisecracking and jesting, for wit will be spontaneous and should prove to be enjoyable. Avoid keeping anyone in suspense this day, for uncertainty is one of the few things liable to upset a good disposition. Married and engaged couples, as well as those whom Cupid has bewitched, will be unwise to evade questions or to take an unreasonable length of time to reach a decision this day.

If a woman and April 10 is your birthday, you ought to have an alert mind, skillful hands and nimble feet. You may combine a love for reading with a fondness for some athletic sport. Social activities sooner or later may absorb a great amount of your spare time. You are apt to be better fitted for a career than domestic life, but the chances are the latter will be the one through which your greatest happiness will come. Should you suffer some wrong, it might be wise to learn to forgive and also to forget it, if possible. You are likely to become well fixed financially. As a business woman, journalist, actress, teacher or artist you may win renown. In all likelihood you will marry a man capable of making you thoroughly happy.

The child born on April 10, during its school days, possibly will do excellent work and establish an enduring reputation for reliability. This youngster ought to become a big success.

If a man and April 10 is your natal day, a stout heart, perseverance and self-assurance will bring you a befitting reward. As an engineer, contractor, politician, author, educator, artist or salesman you may make a record that anyone would be proud of.

too literal for the hungry bride and bridegroom.

In pre-Reformation days in England no bridal couple left the church without hearing Mass and receiving the Holy Communion, and in the Roman Catholic Church none may receive the Holy Communion if they have eaten since the previous night.

At the close of the ceremony, the officiating priest would bless some wine, cakes and other sweetmeats; these constituted, in fact, the breakfast of the wedding party.

SQUELCHED

The new minister was greeted by an untutored elder of his congregation after the first Sunday morning service. The elder, in addition to being untutored, was huge and unwieldy in form. "Minister, that was a fair sermon you gave us this morning—a little too much science, but fair. Remember, you must feed the sheep, feed the sheep." The minister looked his colossal adviser over carefully from head to foot and replied: "Man, it's exercise you need, not food."

SECOND ALLAN CUP MATCH CARDERD THIS EVENING

Shibicky, Heller May Be Missing Due to Injuries

Two Star Members of Rangers' Line-Up Suffering From Concussion of the Brain and May Be On Side Lines Sunday Night in Third Game Against Detroit in Stanley Cup Series

DETROIT, April 9 (P)—Odds on the chances of New York Rangers scoring their sixth Stanley Cup victory lengthened tonight as the Manhattan outfit faced the possible loss of two of their stars for Sunday night's third cup meeting with the champion Detroit Red Wings.

X-ray examinations today revealed Alex Shibicky, the Winnipeg sharpshooter on Rangers' "rookie brigade," and Ott Heller, defence man, were suffering from brain concussions suffered in Detroit last night as the National League champions defeated Rangers, 4-2, and evened the best-of-five series in defence of the cup at one game each.

Rangers won the first game in New York, 5-1. Dr. C. L. Tomsu, physician of the Detroit club, who is attending the two Ranger stars, said Shibicky had the worst injury. The doctor said he would not know until late Sunday whether Shibicky or Heller will be in shape for Sunday night action.

Manager Lester Patrick watched over the injured men anxiously as both were put to bed in their hotel after the hospital encounter.

RECEIVED INJURIES

Shibicky was bodychecked in the second period and Heller received his injury in the third frame when he collided with Wally Kilrea.

The Detroit outfit appeared in better spirits than at any time since the series opened. Jack Adams, Red Wings manager, was particularly jubilant.

"We beat 'em with two rookies and a kid goaltender," he exulted. "We're back in stride and on our way now. Let those Rangers come. We've got their number."

The two Detroit rookies were Howard Mackie and Johnny Sherr, the latter replacing the injured Pete Kelly. Goaltender Earl Robertson, whose brilliant work in the nets, usually guarded by Normie Smith, injured Vezina Trophy winner, won the acclaim of the Detroit veterans.

Annual Softball Meeting Will Be Held Next Week

THE annual meeting of the Victoria and District Softball League will be held Thursday, April 15, in the Y.M.C.A. at 8 o'clock. Alf Longley, league official, announced yesterday. President Jack Taylor will occupy the chair. One delegate, with credentials, from each team is asked to be in attendance. However, the meeting is open, and everybody interested in the game is cordially invited to be present. Election of officers will take place and then plans for the opening of the season will be considered.

OAK BAY AND UPLANDS TO MEET SUNDAY

Australian Davis Cup Team Visits City

SUDBURY TO CLASH WITH BEAVERS; ARE SET FOR BIG GAME

Eastern Hockey Champions Favored to Make It Two Straight Over Western Winners at Calgary Tonight—Winnipeg Monarchs and Copper Cliff Redmen Also Meet in Junior Final

CALGARY, April 9 (P)—Sudbury Tigers and North Battleford Beavers, white-sweatered hockey champions of Eastern and Western Canada, respectively, will clash here tomorrow night in the second game of their best-of-five series for the Allan Cup, the emblem of the Canadian senior title.

Sudbury won the first game of the series last night, 4-1, and with their victory, recorded after they had spent only twelve hours in Calgary's rarified atmosphere after a sixty-hour train ride from Toronto, they became heavy favorites to capture the trophy that was won last year by British Columbia's Kimberley Dynamiters.

The series is the second here in a fortnight in which two teams, wearing uniforms with a marked similarity, have been the principals. Previously North Battleford eliminated Fort William Wanderers after they had changed their sweaters for the second game—the game the big Saskatchewan team lost.

D. P. McDonald, president of the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association and convener of the Allan Cup series, said tonight no such change was likely for this series.

Although still limping from the cut he received in his instep in the first game, "Big" Kampman, big defence regular of the Northern Ontario squad, is expected to be back in the game again tomorrow night.

MEMORIAL CUP FINAL

TORONTO, April 9 (P)—Winnipeg Monarchs and Copper Cliff Redmen, finalists for junior hockey's prized Memorial Cup, were given another go to shoot at today when W. A. Hewitt, secretary-registrar of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, said the winning team would be invited to play in the international series here this month.

Hewitt said both teams had been approached and expressed willingness to go into the series against Wembley Lions, National League champions in England; Hershey Bears, Eastern United States Amateur Hockey League titlists, and whichever team wins the Allan Cup—Sudbury Tigers or North Battleford Beavers.

The C.A.H.A. official said the Memorial Cup winner would be strengthened for the test by addition of some crack junior hockeyists from the district.

The "Peg" team, which arrived here today, carried fourteen men for the best-of-five series against Redmen starting tomorrow night, and it appeared likely at least thirteen would get a chance in the series.

Coach Harry Neil has two of his second-string forwards, Jack Atchison and Paul Rheault, on the injured list and will have to sub them for the first game at least with Denny Robinson and Lucien Martel.

Rheault, who played with Monarchs when they won the Memorial Cup two years ago, may not enter the series at all. He was badly gashed in the second game of the Western finals against Saskatoon Westleys, and Coach Neil said "it all depended on how he had come along" on whether he would play or not.

Syracuse in Victory

SYRACUSE, N.Y., April 9 (P)—Syracuse Stars, champions of the Western Division of the International-American Hockey League, tonight evened their best three-of-five game series for the loop championship with Philadelphia at one game each, defeating the Ramblers 5-2.

Mass Demonstration Is Presented at the Bay Street Armories

Physical and Recreational Training Display by Victoria Centres Attracts More Than 1,000
Persons—Ald. James Adam Opens Show

With more than 1,000 persons in attendance, the third annual mass demonstration of recreational and physical education by Greater Victoria centres was held yesterday evening at the Bay Street Armories.

The display was an outstanding success. It gave citizens of British Columbia's capital city first-hand knowledge of the excellent work being carried on by the Department of Education for young men and young women of the province. It was a grand show with all the thrills, comedy, color and entertainment needed to really make it score.

Those attending never left any doubt as to their appreciation of the efforts of the performers and the fine work of the instructors and greeted the conclusion of each number with prolonged applause.

There were representatives from Vancouver, Chemainus, Marigold, Lake Hill, Esquimalt, North Saanich and Victoria, also combined to make one grand display. They made it.

Physical training in all its phases was aptly demonstrated by the classes, while the comedy numbers, particularly the veteran with the "handkerchief Hank moustache," received rounds of applause. Dull moments were unknown during a show that lasted more than two hours.

GOOD DANCE NUMBERS
There was dancing, too. Clever young women doing tap numbers; a waltz number that left nothing to be desired, and a spectacular gypsy number that really made the hit of the evening. The gay costumes added to the color of the show and spoke well for the artistry of those responsible for this important portion of the programme.

The show opened with all the participants marching onto the spacious floor at the Bay Street Armories and forming a hollow square while Al Prescott's orchestra played "O Canada." It was a stirring picture with more than three hundred young athletic women and men in the centre and hundreds of citizens circled around.

Alderman James Adam officially opened the demonstration with a short address in which he spoke of the growth of the physical training movement in the province, congratulated Ian Eisenhardt, provincial director and Mrs. Joan Horsfield and Alf Batchelor, Victoria instructors, and wished the movement continued success. Ian Eisenhardt introduced Alderman Adam.

GIVEN OVATION
Just prior to the grand finale, Ian Eisenhardt paid a tribute to the young men and women for their fine display. He gave them words of encouragement and expressed the regrets of the Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir, Minister of Education, who was unable to be present. Before concluding he introduced the local instructors and the ovation given them by their pupils told in no small way how much their efforts were appreciated.

Prolonged applause greeted the end of the display, certainly one of the best of its kind seen in Victoria for many years.

Australian Net Squad In City on Way South

Davis Cup Tennis Team Arrives From "Down Under," En Route to Mexico for Opening Series—Non-Playing Captain Speaks for Squad

En route to Mexico City for the opening series of Davis Cup zone tennis play, the Australian representatives, under the guidance of Clifford Sproule, non-playing captain, passed through the city yesterday on their way to Seattle. The Aussies arrived from "down under" on the R.M.S. Niagara in the morning and went to the Empress Hotel to rest up until the afternoon boat pulled out for the Sound city.

Along with the non-playing skipper was Jack Crawford, twenty-nine-year-old veteran and a former winner at Wimbledon; Vivian McGrath, Adrian Quist and John Bromwich, eighteen-year-old sensation, the lad with one of the most unorthodox styles in the game. The playing members of the team had very little to say and left it to Clifford Sproule to do the speaking.

IN FINE SHAPE
Sproule stated that the team is in first-class condition, and that they worked out every day en route to the Northwest. They will stop off at Los Angeles for an exhibition series among themselves. He stated the high altitude in Mexico may slow up the players, but that they were in no way in danger of suffering defeat. Bromwich played brilliant tennis in Australia this season and reached every final in every major tournament, but look part in, but failed to lift a single title. The youngster defeated every member of the team with the exception of McGrath.

"Bromwich is a freak player," stated Sproule. "He is even more unorthodox than McGrath. Bromwich serves right handed, changes his racket to the left to avoid backhands and wallows the ball with a two-handed forehand drive in a manner which gives him one of the fastest returns in the game."

Dr. E. W. Boak, representing the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association, and other men prominent in the sport in British Columbia, greeted the Australians upon their arrival.

GOLF SQUADS IN DEADLOCK

Oak Bay and Colwood Finish
In Tie in Sayward Cup
Competition

Playing at the Royal Colwood Golf Club, squads of female shot-makers from the home club and the Victoria Golf Club met yesterday in the first half of the Sayward Cup competition and finished just where they started, in a deadlock, the score being seven and one-half points each. The second half will be played later in the year at the Oak Bay course.

Results, with the Colwood players first mentioned, follow:

SAM SNEAD IS LEADING PACK

Young Golf Pro Tops $5,000
Open by Four Strokes—
Little Disqualified

CHARLESTON, S.C., April 9 (AP).—Piercing gale-like winds with his whistling drives, Sam Snead, the twenty-four-year-old golf rookie from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., resumed the lead today in the seventy-two-hole $5,000 tournament of Gardens.

Snead cracked par by one stroke to move out in front of the field with a fifty-four-hole total of 209, four blows under par and two ahead of Henry G. Picard, who took a third-round 78.

Davis Cup Team Named for First Of Tennis Games

NEW YORK, April 9 (AP).—Walter L. Pate, non-playing captain of the United States Davis Cup team, said today the American squad for the first round zone match against Japan would be made up of Don Budge, Frankie Parker, Robert Riggs, Joe Hunt and possibly Gene Mako.

T. B. Wood and Bryan (Bitoy) Grant also were invited to become members of the squad, so meet Japan, but business forced them to decline.

NOT SO DUMB
A country farmer was using the telephone in a public call box, but he could not make himself understood. The operator kept telling him to shout louder. "If I could shout any louder," he said in exasperation, "I shouldn't be using your damned old contraption at all."
